

AN EARLY CALLER, making a noisy entrance, awakened the Les Brownlees, Wolf rd., Mokena, last Sunday morning shortly before 8 o'clock. It was a crashing sound, and startled, the couple tumbled out of bed and rushed to the living room. They occupy the second floor. The picture window was demolished and there were glass fragments sticking in the walls and furniture. Across the room lay a large cock pheasant, dead. Its neck was broken. Mr. Brownlee, a lawnmower manufacturer, who - holding the pheasant, slipped in a piece of plywood to keep other pheasants out until he could get some more glass.

Dedicate Post Office At Frankfort Next Thursday

The new post office at Frankfort is to be formally dedicated next Thursday, April 11, and Postmaster LeRoy Mager has planned a program that will be held in the grade school, followed by an inspection trip to the post office. The program at the school is to begin at 7:30 o'clock. The principal speaker is to be U.S. Senator Douglas, Mr. Mager announced. The senator is also to present the post office with its official flag.

The Frankfort grade school band will play several selections and the Boy Scout troop, No. 270 will have a part in the ceremonies.

The invocation is to be given by the Rev. LaVern Smith, pastor of St. Peter's church and the benediction by the Rev. Cecil Koop, O.F.M., pastor of St. Anthony's church of Lincoln Estates. The Rev. James Parker, pastor of the Frankfort Methodist church is to act as master of ceremonies.

The dedication program is a project of the Frankfort Lions club and the club president, Dr. George Morgan, is to be introduced by Mager, Mayor George Sangmeister is to speak briefly and local, county, and postal officials present will be introduced by J. Walter Lowrey, city councilman of Joliet and former postmaster there until his retirement a few years ago.

Annual Easter Egg Hunts On For This Week-end

Easter egg hunts are very much on the agenda in the area for this week-end.

The American Legion Auxiliary is sponsoring such a hunt at Frankfort this Saturday. Valley View Farm is holding its eighth annual egg hunt Sunday, beginning at 12 noon and at Mokena the Lions club is staging its annual egg hunt for the children beginning at 3 o'clock Easter afternoon.

Everyone is eligible to compete in the hunt at Valley View Farm, U.S. 30. Details may be obtained at the restaurant. Finder of the golden goose egg will win first prize. And here's a clue: Not lower than the soles of your shoes! Not higher than your nose!

At Mokena the hunt will be staged in Community Park on LaPorte road. Time for preschoolers will be from 3 to 3:15 o'clock. Then the children in grades one thru six will be turned loose. Each Lion club member is to bring a dozen hardboiled, colored eggs to Roy Richardson's market not later than Saturday. Richardson is chairman and is assisted by Herman Munk, Fred Lehmann, Larry Istel and Harold Clarke. Prizes will be awarded. In event of rain the hunt will be held Monday.

At Frankfort the hunt will be held in the park, starting at 10 o'clock in the morning. There will be prizes. The hunt there is for youngsters living in the area and the same is true at Mokena where youngsters in that area may participate.

Mokena Grade School Pupils Plan Operetta

The vocal music department of Mokena grade school will present the operetta, "Howdy Cowboy" at Carpenter Street school on Friday and Saturday evenings, April 19 and 20 at 8:00 P.M. Principal roles for this Western show will be played by Jim Surovick, Donna Guth, Kathy Haislet, Ken Hulet, Vaughn Whitfield, Candy Sherwood, Tim Ricketts, Roberta Lang, Barbara Richardson, Marla Fant, Dan Dina, Linda Istel and Jim Burkhardt. Accompanists will be Valerie Tuttle and Kathy Rauch. Tickets are available at Carpenter Street School or from any member of the cast.

Carpenter School students traveled to Chidix Junior High School, Normal, Illinois, on Saturday, April 6 for the State Fine Arts Contest of I.E.S.A. Donna Guth, soprano, received a superior rating and the following entries received excellent: Tim Ricketts, Girls' Ensemble #2, Girls' Ensemble #3 and Boys' Sextet, Mrs. Vernon Lankenau and Valerie Tuttle accompanied the groups who were under the direction of Mrs. Wm. R. Clark, vocal music supervisor for Mokena.

The public is invited to the program at the school and the open house at the post office. The public is also invited to a dinner that will precede the dedication program. The dinner is to be held at Arch Inn, starting at 5:30 p.m. Reservations are $5 per person and must be submitted to J.R. Dean, at the Frankfort pharmacy, not later than Saturday, April 13.

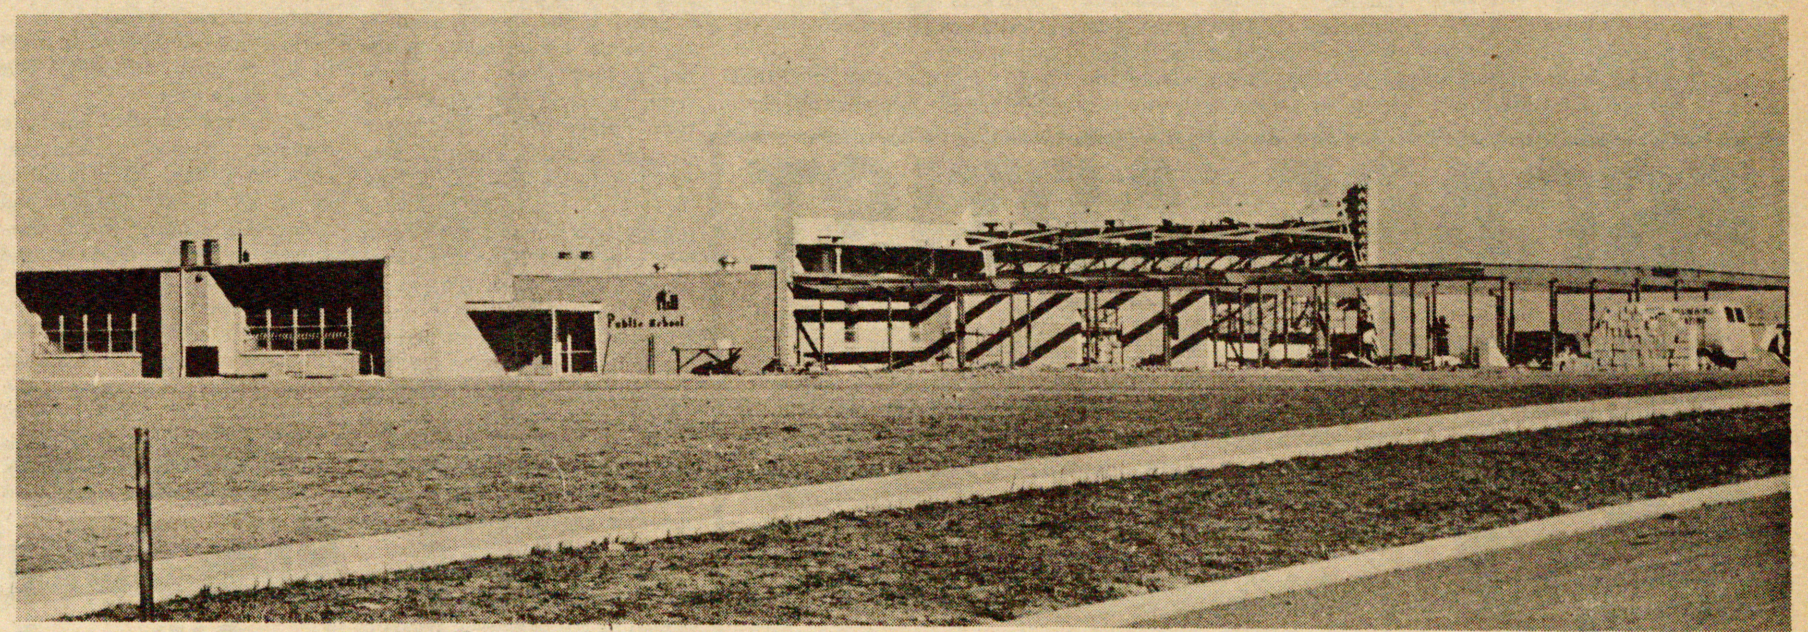

N. Lenox Lions Need Help With Baseball Program

If all the boys of the New Lenox area who want to take part in the baseball program sponsored by the New Lenox Lions club this year are to have an opportunity to do so more help is needed, it was announced by those in charge.

More managers and coaches will be a must, it was said. Early returns on registration this year indicates approximately 250 boys will enroll in the program. Last year 200 signed up and that was an increase over the year previous.

The Lions have supported a Babe Ruth team, ages 13 to 15, and a Small Fry team, ages 9 to 12, in the Tri County Baseball league for the last eight years. This includes Manhattan, Frankfort, Peotone, Beecher, Monee, Grant Park, and other communities as well as New Lenox. Teams will be entered in the Tri-County League again this year. League play will begin after the school year closes.

Villages Of Area Prepare For Vote Battles Tuesday

New Lenox, Frankfort and Mokena will be holding village elections next Tuesday, April 16.

Three trustees are to be chosen at Frankfort and Mokena but at New Lenox a mayor and village clerk will also be chosen in addition to three trustees.

There are contests in all three villages. Polls will open at 6 a.m. and close at 6 p.m.

At New Lenox there are three candidates in the mayor's race, Stanley Gilmore, just completing his first term in the office; Robert B. Fahrner, a teacher in the New Lenox grade school and Eugene W. Hunt, a member of the village board.

For trustees there are six candidates for the three places to be filled. They are listed here in the order in which their names appear on the ballot: Robert Bishop; Ben A. Thomas; Eugene (Steve) McGowan, an incumbent, Gerald J. Roesel; Chester Bowman and Evans W. Drotts. The last two are also incumbents.

There are also two candidates for village clerk. The incumbent, Robert J. McCleary is being opposed by Edith J. Sayers.

At Mokena there are six candidates for the three places to be filled. One group is running as a slate--Gary L. Chase, Hans W. Mueller and Marvin W. Weindorf. The other three are listed as independents--Fred Steinhagen, Rudolph C. Engelhardt and Raymond F. Blisgrove.

At Frankfort there are four tickets listed on the ballot. There are three candidates on Independent No. 1--John Topp and Clyde Reils, both incumbents, and Robert Dean.

On Independent No. 2 is George Zwolinski.

On Independent No. 3 are two names, Wayne DePorte, an incumbent, and Frank A. Eisenbrandt. One name is listed under the appellation Peoples, Paul

A. Lambrecht. Lively contests are expected in all three communities, according to political observers.

Contests Will Mark All Area School Elections

Contests will mark all of the school elections in the area this Saturday and with seven running for the three places to be filled on the Lincoln-Way high school board it is expected there will be a large turnout of voters.

There are two tickets in the high school race, Lorin Schleeter, of Manhattan, Elias Brown of Mokena, and Wendell Morrison of Frankfort, on one, and Robert A. Foley, Mokena, Harold Miller, of New Lenox and David McClure, of Manhattan, on the other. Dr. George R. Morgan, a dentist, who resides at New Lenox and practices at Frankfort, is the independent.

Brown and Schleeter are incumbents who are seeking another term. Albert H. Krusemark who was from another community who is seeking another term. Albert H. Krusemark who was from Frankfort did not choose to run for another term this year and Morrison is running with the incumbents.

Fuley, Mille and McClure are supported by the group that opposed Lincoln-Way's entry into the proposed southwest suburban junior college district a couple of years ago.

There are five running for the three places on the Frankfort school board, Melvin A. Eisenbrandt, Thomas Henry Hedge, Lewis S. Ebert Glenn H. Nissen, and Clifford Woodman. None of them are incumbents.

Five also are running for the two places open on the Mokena board: Mrs. Victor Peterson, Ralph Thompson, Robert Best, Fremont Warning and Chester Ebert. Ebert is the only incumbent in the race.

At New Lenox there are three running with two to be elected: Victor Miller, Cherry Hill, Roy Fitzer and John B. Anderson, Jr. Fitzer and Anderson are incumbents.

Three are running for the two three-year terms on the Arbury Hills school board (Summit Hill Dist. No. 161): John Hayden, Hyman Kronick and Julius J. Sandy. Roy E. Dickerson is the only candidate for the unexpired one-year term.

Suspends Two Bar Licenses In Orland Twp.

Two Orland township taverns were among the four affected by the ruling of County Board Chairman Seymour Simon given on Monday of this week. Simon suspended four suburban tavern licenses for short periods.

The license of Carr's Cocktail Lounge, n.w. corner 159th and Wolf road, was suspended for 10 days for allegedly selling liquor to minors. The other place ordered closed was Raschke's Bar-B-Q Inc., 159th street and U.S. 45, Easchke's was closed for five days, on a charge of selling booze to a minor.

section of the American Medical Association lives in Mokena, with his wife, Rosemary, and their three children. Before entering the field of medical administration, he was a district executive in Chicago Council, Boy Scouts of America.

Mr. Best came from Wisconsin to attend Concordia Teachers college at River Forest. He taught school for two years in Iowa. As administrator and then salesman in the field, he was employed by the National Advertising Co., a subsidiary of Minnesota Mining & Manufacturing.

He is active in church and community affairs and includes hunting, fishing and golf among his hobbies.

ARBURY HILLS SCHOOL ADDITION is progressing satisfactorily, according to Supt. James Wrath and it is expected the work will be completed by July 1. The architect is W. J. Scheidemantel, of Downers Grove and the contractor is Baumgartner & Co., Frankfort. The building is to cost $92,000. A bond issue of $115,000 was approved by the voters of the Summit Hill school district Sept. 15, 1962 and work began in December of that year. Architect's fees, legal fees, landscaping and furnishings for the addition come out of the bond money.

School Needs, Costs On Rise In Arbury Hills

The effect of a rapidly expanding school population on both the physical and financial resources of a school district is being clearly illustrated in Summit Hill District 161.

Construction of an addition to the Arbury Hills School is moving ahead toward a completion date of July 1. The addition will double the area of the present building.

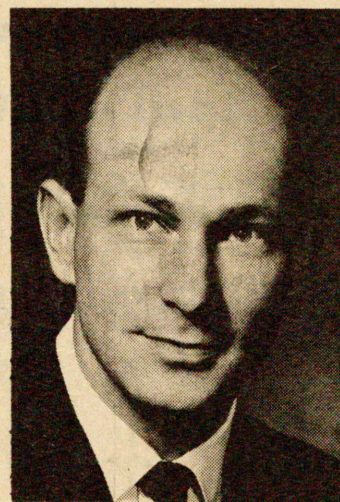

The additional financial resources necessary to provide teachers and supplies for the expanding program are being requested Saturday, April 13, at the regular school election. The polls will be open from 12:00 noon until 7:00 p.m. at the Arbury Hills school. Registration for school elections is not necessary. The requirements for voting are residential -- 30 days in the district, 90 days in the county and one year in the state, and, of course, one has to be a citizen.

The board of education is asking the voters to approve an increase in the educational rate from the present .96 to $1.17 per $100 of assessed valuation. The most recent valuation for the district is $3,900,000 which is an increase from $1,600,000 in 1960. This increase fails to match the pupil increase, however, from 38 in 1960 to 249 in 1963.

The assessed valuation behind each child has dropped from $43,000 to $15,800. Even though the total assessed valuation for the district increases, the support behind each child is decreasing.

The district needs the additional tax money the new rate will produce in order to keep from continuing its deficit financing, a spokesman explained. The board has borrowed $35,000 over the past two years and expects to have to issue anticipation warrants for another $21,000 next school year in order to meet expenses. The limit to the money a district can borrow is 75% of the taxes levied for educational purposes. This limit has almost been reached and when it is, the program will suffer, it was stated.

New Lenox Board To Hire A Business Secretary

The village of New Lenox is to employ a business manager or business secretary. He will be employed five hours a day for six days a week and will maintain an office in the quarters of the police magistrate.

He is to be paid $200 a month. A committee made up of Trustee Chester Bowman, chairman, and Trustees Don Anderson and Eugene McGovney, which recommended the office be established, was held on by Mayor Stanley Gilmore as a committee to interview applicants for the job and make a recommendation to the village board.

An appropriation of $3,000 covering the salary and expenses of the office has been tentatively approved for inclusion in the coming budget.

Some of the money, according to the action taken by the board last week, will come from reducing the pay of certain village officials. Last October the village board adopted a resolution fixing the village clerk's salary at $800 a year for the next term. Last week it was voted to rescind this so the clerk will get $400. The mayor's salary will also be maintained at $12.50 a month instead of the $25 granted and the new trustees will get $5 a meeting. Three trustees now collect $10 a meeting and will continue to draw that sum for another two years unless they voluntarily agree to the same rate as will be paid the other trustees.

The mayor read a letter from the Association of Commerce, signed by the president, Donald Nepote congratulating the board on its idea of getting a business manager and approving the step. Trustees Eugene Hunt, who is a candidate for mayor, and Trustee Robert Randolph voted against the proposal to establish a business manager. Hunt declared he thought it was a waste of money and that New Lenox still hadn't grown to the point where the elected officials could take care of the job.

Hunt and Randolph also voted against reducing the salary of the village clerk. McGovney abstained from voting.

Hunt left the meeting at 10:35 to go to work. Randolph left at the same time.

Advocates for the business manager proposal believe that such an office, with someone in it to handle clerical and accounting details would contribute a great deal to the efficient operation of the village. They believe that clerical duties to be handled by the business secretary or manager would relieve the mayor, the clerk and trustees of some of their duties so that lower compensation would be adequate. The board authorized Village

Attorney William Penn to proceed with legal action against the engineer and contractor of the sewer system to collect some $5,000 which the village claims is due for.

The treasurer was authorized to repay Vernon Mangun $2,700 previously advanced by him to finance sewer construction. This money is available on the sewer count and payment at this time will save interest charges, it was stated.

A delegation from Ingalls Park, east of Joliet, appeared at the board meeting to get the costs of the sewer job. Ingalls Park is faced with a need for sewers and a sewage disposal unit.

More School Mergers In Offing For Area

A hearing is scheduled for April 23 on the question of dissolving the Weitendorf school district. The Will county board of school trustees will decide on that date whether the district is to be divided, with the portion south of U. S. 30 going to the Frankfort grade school district, and the portion south of the highway being attached to the Mokena district.

Petitions asking this division were filed with County School Supt. Verne E. Crackel last week. The county superintendent, by virtue of his office, is secretary of the board of school trustees.

The hearing date is set and indications were that if the petitions are found to be in order the division will be ordered. A piece of the district north of U. S. 30 was attached to the Mokena district several months ago.

One of the major factors prompting the action by residents of the Weitendorf district is that under a ruling to come from the state superintendent's office schools will not be accredited unless there is at least one teacher for three grades. This will make it necessary for a school with eight grades to have three teachers. Indications also point to housing developments in the area which could skyrocket the Weitendorf school population. The prime objective of the petitioners for the division, they declare, is to get better schooling for the children.

Last week the county school trustees decided the Marley school district problem. The trustees ordered the district dissolved with a part going to New Lenox Dist. No. 122 and part going to Mokena Dist. No. 159. The proposed FAI-80 highway will be the dividing line.

The portion of the district east, and south of the highway, which will include Rolling Heights subdivision goes to Mokena. The rest of the Marley district—about 80% of it—including the school building will be added to the New Lenox district. Mokena's school board protested against this but to no avail. A compromise was reported worked out whereby the Wabash railroad right of way would serve as the dividing line. Under this proposal the school building would have become a part of the Mokena district but the New Lenox board is reported to have declined to go along when their representative at the compromise conference reported back with the proposal.

Reiter district and New Lenox are now talking about attaching Reiter to the New Lenox district. According to reports from good authority the directors of Reiter and the members of the New Lenox school board were to have met last Thursday but because of illness the meeting was postponed until April 22, but it was believed both boards are in agreement and will sign a petition asking the county trustees to take action.

The changes contemplated and those ordered should become effective July 1. The increase in territory, it was said, will give New Lenox a pupil population of approximately 1,300 and a need for about 10 more teachers. Schmuhl school will be a part of the New Lenox district beginning July 1.

Easter Concert

A special Easter concert will be given by the Chicago Chamber Orchestra, with Dieter Kober conducting, next Sunday afternoon at 3:30 at the Museum of Science and Industry, 57th Street and South Shore Drive. Admission is free.

Following a pattern which the orchestra set in a program of Easter music at the Museum a year ago, the highlight of the afternoon will be the spiritual music of Johann Sebastian Bach, whose Cantata No. 51, Juchzet Gott (Praise the Lord in All Lands) will be performed with soprano soloist Jacqueline Willens. Miss Willens, Evanston artist, has recently returned from two years of concertizing in Europe and abroad. This will be her first return Chicago appearance.

A contemporary American composer, Arthur Custer of New England, will receive the first hearing of his Passacaglia for chamber orchestra. Custer's First Symphony was recently performed by the Madrid (Spain) Symphony. Sunday's program will also include Mozart's Symphony No. 26. The performance is by grant from Music Performance Trust Funds in cooperation with Local 10 and the Chicago Chamber Orchestra Association.

MISS RUTH J. WILLIAMS, food and homemaking consultant will be a guest of St. Mary's Altar and Rosary Society meeting on Thursday, April 18, at 8 p.m. at the Social Center. Miss Williams program is a lecture-demonstration covering the preparation of a variety of foods for entertaining, for special occasions and easy, interesting and delicious dishes just for the home folks. The program will be entertaining, as well as informative and practical, it was said, plus the extra bonus of Miss Williams sparkling, friendly manner and natural Hoesler wit. Following the lecture refreshments will be served.

The Society will receive Holy Communion in a body at the 9 a.m. Mass on Sunday, April 21. St. Mary's Medical Mission Group will meet on Monday, April 15 from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. at the Social Center.

Outlines Program For Library Week At Mokena

Details on the celebration of Library Week in Mokena have been released by Mrs. Phillip Lenz, president of the Mokena Book club. There will be a planned program in the Mokena Library every day except Wednesday. All programs will start at 3:45 and will last for half an hour. Grades listed are not meant to restrict children, but to act as a general guide for interest levels.

Friday, April 26 - Fashions and Etiquette by Mrs. Clarence Miller. Illustrated by 16 fashion mannequin dolls. Seventh and eighth grade girls.

Saturday, April 27 - Indian Lore by Mr. Marian Owen. Time to be announced later. Seventh and eighth grade boys.

THE ENGAGEMENT and approaching marriage of her daughter, Marilyn, to William Remien, son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Remien, Linden Drive, Frankfort, has been announced by Mrs. Edith Sayers, 120 Elm st., New Lenox.

The wedding is to take place June 8, at a private ceremony scheduled for 4 o'clock in the Sayers' home. The Rev. Ralph Miller, former pastor of the New Lenox Methodist church and now an official of the Rock River Conference, will officiate.

The couple graduated from Lincoln-Way high school and Miss Sayers, who attended Illinois State Normal university is employed by the National Fire Insurance Co., at Chicago. Mr. Remien is a senior at Beloit college and will be graduated in June.

No Tuition Students Is Rule At Sandburg High

School District 230 will not accept tuition students, and parents living outside the district boundaries who send their children to Carl Sandburg high school will face legal action, William O. Fisher, district superintendent, warned this week.

Fisher said that the district has brought suit against one family which listed its business address as its residence and sent two girls to Sandburg. He said he is "not worried about the particulars of this case," a civil action seeking to recover tuition. About five students in the past two or three years have been illegally enrolled in Sandburg, Fisher said, and "have been caught in a short period of time."

The only exception to the non-residence policy is a family which is building a home near completion in the district. In this case, children will be accepted for $50 a month tuition, payable a semester in advance.

"We are going to educate the students in our district," Fisher said. "The rest better go where they belong or face legal action."

COUNTY LEGION AUX. The Will County Council, American Legion Auxiliary, is to meet April 16 in the home of Joliet post, No. 1080 at 820 N. Hickory st., Joliet. The affair is to begin with a luncheon at 12:30 o'clock.

Woman's Club To Get Tips On Meat Cooking

MRS. KATHARINE HEISNER
Telephone 469-5187

Members of the Frankfort Women's club will get a lesson in meat cooking next Thursday (April 18) at a demonstration to be given in the home of Mrs. A.H. Krusemark, 231 Oak street.

Miss Jeanne Paris, director of home economics for Swift & Co., will be in charge. The packing firm Miss Paris represents has developed a process in preparing beef so a homemaker can buy lean, less expensive cuts and without applying any tenderizer cook them with dry heat, thus saving time and being assured of tenderness too.

The demonstration for the Women's Club is scheduled for 8 p.m.

Miss Paris is to show a film on how to buy, cook and serve this beef. In addition she will demonstrate several colorful and edible garnishes for steaks and roasts. Among the garnishes will be apple baskets filled with whipped cream and a mixture of melted butter and oil in an especially designed dish. Each guest cooks the beef to his liking and then dips it into the special sauce.

Following the demonstration refreshments will include beef fondue served with sour cream curry sauce. Beef fondue is a do-it-yourself snack or main course of European origin. Tender pieces of beef are speared on a long-handled fork or bamboo stick and cooked in a mixture of melted butter and oil in an especially designed dish. Each guest cooks the beef to his liking and then dips it into the special sauce.

The Frankfort Band Boosters met at the grade school April 2 and at this meeting chose a committee to nominate officers for the coming year. This committee is made up of Mrs. Robert Fredin, Mrs. Lynn Kohlhaugen, and Mrs. Robert Van Rheeden.

The band will compete in the state contest at Beecher April 27 and has high hopes of winning its fifth consecutive title rating. Soloists and ensembles who scored firsts in district contests will also compete for state honors.

A shoulder patch designed by Jo Van Rheeden was adopted by the Band Boosters and will be placed on the band jackets the organization is purchasing to band members. In the patch competition honorable mention went to Lee Ann Otto and Marilee Holman. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Annette Fleck. Mrs. Joan Kelly was in charge of the meeting. The next meeting is to be held May 7.

Sue Lauffer, 130 S. Hickory st., a junior at Lincoln-Way, has been selected by the Woman's Auxiliary of Bobzin-Swinford post, American Legion, as its representative at the 23rd annual session of Girls State. The session will be held at MacMurray college, Jacksonville, June 18-25.

Girls state provides practical citizenship training. A total of 486 high school girls from all parts of Illinois live together and learn "by doing" the duties, responsibilities, rights and privileges of American citizenship, that they may better understand and participate in the functions of government.

The girls are divided into two so-called political parties. They hold conventions, campaigns and elections and perform the duties of public officials.

Miss Lauffer belongs to the Rhythm Knights, Future Teachers, Science club, Student Council and Math club. She is also 4-H club officer and is a member of the Good Shepherd Lutheran church, the choir there and the church Youth Group.

Many relatives and friends offered congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. John Schilling last Sunday on the occasion of the 45th wedding anniversary.

A reception for the couple was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Mersch, Mrs. Mersch is a daughter. Other children of the couple who assisted were, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Simpson, Mr. and Mrs. James Bell, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Schilling and Mr. and Mrs. Albert Sylvester. The house was decorated with beautiful flowers.

Mrs. Schilling was presented with a corsage and Mr. Schilling with a flower for his lapel. Many gifts, including a purse, was received by the couple. At 7 o'clock dinner was served to 60. Guests were present from Joliet, Blue Island, Hammond, Elgin, Dundee, Algonquin, Mayville, Wis., and Horicon, Wis.

The WSCS of the Frankfort Methodist church is to hold its next meeting Tuesday evening, April 16, at 7:30 o'clock in the church. The National Council of Churches is to be the topic, with Miss Lois Betenhausen as chairman. Hostesses will be Mrs. Max Feller, Mrs. John Johnson, Mrs. Charles Lewin and Mrs. William Smith. Mrs. Lloyd Heisner is to preside at the business session.

Donation for the annual spring buffet dinner scheduled for April 27 has been set at $1.75 for adults; $1 for children between 6 and 12 years old, and 50 cents for youngsters under six. Reservations may be made by calling New Lenox 485-6612 or Frankfort 469-5410. Serving will be from 4:30 to 7:30. A gift shop will be operated in connection with the dinner.

Mrs. Fred Piepenbrink will be hostess to the Frankfort-Mokena Homemakers extension unit at 12:30 p.m. Tuesday, April 16.

Eleven were confirmed at St. Peter's church Sunday by the Rev. La Vern Smith, including his son John. The paternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Smith, of Collinsville, attended the ceremony. Later in the day those confirmed were honored at dinners. The Paul Lambrechts entertained 35 in honor of their son, Thomas.

The Lewis Eberts were hosts to 20 at a dinner for their daughter, Helen.

The Henry Mossell had a dinner for their daughter Heather, Mr. and Mrs. Conrad Haakinson had 35 for dinner in honor of their daughter, Sandra.

Special Services Mark Observance Of Holy Week

TELEPHONE 479-3521
Special Good Friday and Maundy Thursday services are planned by Mokena churches. Today (April 11) is Maundy Thursday or Holy Thursday and commemorates the Last Supper at which Our Lord instituted the sacrament of Holy Communion.

In St. John's church and the Immanuel Lutheran church there will be Communion services both tonight and Good Friday at 7:45. The Methodist church will have a candlelight Holy Communion Good Friday evening at 8 o'clock. St. Mary's church will have masses tonight, Good Friday and Holy Saturday at 8 o'clock.

At St. John's church the Rev. Theodore Wimmer has chosen the "Holy Supper," as the theme for his sermon tonight. An anthem, "Savior to Thee We Pray," the music and words of which are the work of Mrs. Leroy Harling, director of the church and junior choir of the church, will be sung by the eighth grade ensemble as the communion hymn. The adult and teen choirs will sing, "In Remembrance," by Lorenz.

Friday night the pastor will speak on the words Christ spoke from the Cross, "Father, Into Thy Hand I Commend My Spirit." The combined adult and teen choir will sing Burleigh's, "Were You There?"

At the Immanuel Lutheran church tonight and Friday the Rev. August J. Buelmann will preach on, "Calvary's First."

The sermon by the Rev. Robert J. Watson at the Methodist church tomorrow night will have as its theme, "From the Cross -- Forgiveness." The junior choir will sing "Jesus Walked This Lonely Valley" and "Were You There?"

On Easter three of the Mokena churches will have sunrise services.

The Immanuel Lutheran service is scheduled for 6 a.m. with the junior choir singing, "Light of Easter." The pastor's sermon subject will be, "Jesus Lives." The Lutheran Youth League will serve breakfast to the congregation at which a free will offering will be taken. The next service will be at 10 a.m.

At St. John's church the Youth Fellowship will conduct a sunrise service at 6:30 o'clock to which the public is invited. An Easter breakfast is planned for 7 o'clock with a charge of $1 for adults and 50 cents for children.

At the regular morning worship service at 10:45 the Sunday school and church choirs will sing. The church and junior boy and girl choruses will sing "The Risen Lord," and "Open the Gates of the Temple" while the combined adult and teen choir will sing "The Lord Is Risen Today," and "Halleluiah To The King."

Peotone, at St. Mary's hospital, Kankakee. Mrs. Kruger is a sister of Mrs. Charles Bell. Later the Bells were supper guests in the Robert O'Toole home at Bradley.

The women of St. Peter's church will meet Wednesday, April 17 at 9 a.m. in the church to make cancer dressing. Each woman will provide her own lunch.

The Lions club will hold its regular meeting Tuesday night at Arch Inn. The dinner is set for 6:30 o'clock. Grant Geuther will preside.

Mr. and Mrs. Wayne C. Johnson are parents of a daughter born April 1, at Silver Cross hospital, Joliet.

Will Fill 3 Places On Ann Rutledge Board

MRS. EMIL WILLE
Telephone 469-5257

Lively interest in the coming school election has been manifest in the Ann Rutledge District. There are five men running for the two full terms of three years each. There is also a woman candidate, Mrs. Dwight (Jessie) Nicholson, who is running for an unexpired term of one year. She is unopposed.

One of the five men in the race is an incumbent, Charles Z. Jones. The other member whose term expires this month is Donald Ball, Sr. He chose not to run.

The other four running are, Charles Scheeler, Glenn Coburn, Paul Wilson, and Lawrence Griffin, Sr.

Jones is well known to everyone in the district and Scheeler, Coburn, Wilson and Griffin all have children in the school and are interested in the welfare of the district. Mrs. Nicholson has two sons in the school and is active in the PTA.

The election will be Saturday, April 13, with the school serving as the polling place. The poll will open at 12 noon and close at 7 p.m.

Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Johnson are parents of a girl born Monday, April 1, at Silver Cross hospital. She has been named Joyce Ellen. The Johnsons have two sons, Michael and Mark. The teachers of Ann Rutledge school attended the meeting for village teachers at Troy on April 1. This was an all day meeting.

Mrs. James Fix, Tacoma, Wash., is spending several days with her aunt, Mrs. Harriett Bissell.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Staton and family spent Saturday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Don Nowlan at Dyer, Ind. Marion Staton, Chicago, spent the week-end with the Stanley Statons. They are brothers.

Mr. and Mrs. Jerry McLean and family of Gary were callers at the Emereth Boyden home Sunday.

Mrs. Sylvester Tyler has returned from St. Petersburg, Fla. She made the trip with her son and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. David Tyler, of Mokena. In Florida they visited Mr. and Mrs. Walter Madsen, parents of the younger Mrs. Tyler. While in the south they encountered the John Fedaks who were also vacationing in Florida.

Lincolnwood Brownies Practice For Rally

DOLORES ANDERSON
485-3651

Girl Scout Troop 375 met Thursday at the Schmuhl school, and practiced their skit on "Mexico" for the Girl Scout rally to be held May 5 at Joliet township high school.

It was announced that the troop sold 45 cases of cookies of which the profit goes to improve the girl scout camp site at Ottawa.

Applications were handed out to those who plan to attend established camp at Camp Na-wa-Kwa at Poland, Ind. this summer.

New Lenox School Superintendent Arnold Tyler, will be the guest speaker at the meeting of the Community club, to be held in Schmuhl school on Tuesday, April 23.

The Community club will sponsor a roller skating party Thursday night April 25 at the Tinley Park roller rink from 7 to 10 p.m. Tickets are being sold in advance for 75 cents per person, or $3 per family.

The busy Hour 4-H club will meet this month on Wednesday, April 24 instead of April 25, the regular date.

On Monday April 15 approximately 20 Brownies of troops 307 and 333 will go by bus to Chicago where they will have dinner at the Kungsholm restaurant and see a performance of the Puppet Opera. Brownie leaders, Mrs. Clare Schram, Mrs. Evelyn Meyers, Mrs. Mel-lie Taylor, and assistant, Mrs. Dorothy Cook will accompany them.

"Some women won't have anything to do with the common market until they find out what kind of stamps they'll get."

Red Cross To Give First Aid Instructor's Course

Red Cross will offer a first aid instructor course, set to begin on Monday, April 15, at the chapter headquarters, 222 N. Broadway. The classes will meet from 7 to 10 p.m. on Mondays for five weeks with Alfred C. Levering, first aid chairman, and Mary Frances Kennedy, director of first aid and water safety for the chapter, in charge.

Anyone interested and qualified may telephone the Red Cross office for further details and enrollment. Levering said that early registration is important because the number admitted to the class will be limited in order to insure thorough instruction. Persons who hold a current certificate in advanced first aid are eligible for the instructor training.

First aid training is required for many types of jobs, Levering explained, and also is valuable to people who do a lot of driving or spend much time in outdoor sports and recreation. Most police and firemen are trained in Red Cross first aid and many industries use first aid training to make plant safety programs more effective.

Those who earn instructor certificates will then teach hundreds of Will County residents. More than 1,200 received first aid training last year in this program.

New Lenox Man Wins Promotion

James L. Anderson, 24, son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald H. Anderson, 214 E. Haven ave., New Lenox, recently was promoted to specialist four at Fort Lawton, Wash., where he is serving with the 26th Artillery Group.

Specialist Anderson, a clerk in the group's Headquarters Battery, received basic training at Fort Leonard Wood, Mo.

Anderson was graduated from Lincoln Way high school in 1957 and received his bachelor of science degree from the University of Illinois, Urbana, in 1962. His wife, Janet, lives in Seattle, Wash.

School Elections Saturday--Vote!

On Saturday, April 13, the people of the various school districts will elect school board members in the larger districts and directors in the smaller.

There are seven members on a school board and in the others there are three directors. The terms are allocated so that all do not expire at one time.

This explanation is unnecessary for persons who have lived in suburban and rural communities for any length of time. But we are constantly getting newcomers, many of them from Chicago where the board of education is made up of appointees named by the mayor.

In our opinion it is a privilege to have a direct voice in school affairs. It is also a great responsibility and one that should not be regarded too lightly.

We regret to state that too many times too little interest is taken in school elections. Schools are big business, so far as costs are concerned. Some 70% of the tax dollar is spent on education.

Anyone entitled to vote in a school election and doesn't, has no right to complain about how his taxes are spent or the schools are operated. The same can be said about any other election in which public officials are chosen.

A school board should be made up of intelligent, honest, devoted citizens who understand that their function is policy making and not administration.

If board members become involved in the appointment of teachers and other matters of patronage that school and school district is in for trouble -- with a capital T.

In those districts covering large areas consideration should be given to the selection of members so that the various sections have representation. People resent being left out of the picture. And they have something there. Say that on a seven-member board four of them come from the same community. Conceivably that one community could control the district.

The Illinois Association of School Boards has something to say about the duties, powers and limitations of a school board which would be well to reproduce:

"Most people recognize the general philosophical concept that the American public schools represent the primary tool for the preservation of our freedoms. Few appreciate the legal safeguards which have been built up to protect that fundamental position. The complex pattern of constitutional law, statutes and court decisions involving schools are such as to make it equally difficult on the one hand for a minority to thwart the will of the majority, or, on the other hand, for government to encroach too far in the basic freedom of parents to direct the development of their children.

"A school board is an agency of the state. As such it has those powers granted by the legislature, or clearly inferred, and no others. It must hold regular public meetings, and exercise its powers only at regular or special meetings at which a quorum is present, and records are kept. The board speaks only thru its records.

"But preoccupation with the formalities of board meetings and record keeping may well detract from the basic business of the board--planning the training of the next generation. Discretion, into which even the courts will not inquire, has been delegated to school boards. The proper exercise of this discretion in determining the course to be pursued by the schools is the real business of the board. All else is merely means to an end."

The Lincoln-Way high school board sums up its philosophy in these words:

"We believe that every final decision should be based upon one general consideration--'What is best for the school and the students.'

It is not expected nor desired that each member of a board should hold the same opinion. It is only after a free exchange of thoughts and ideas, and consideration of these different views, that solutions may be found to many problems, and at the same time preserve harmony.

It is well for the public to remember that board meetings are open to anyone who chooses to attend. And the boards welcome such interest on the part of the people. It should be remembered, however, that while such meetings are public meetings the public cannot expect to take part in the discussions before the board unless invited to do so or thru previous arrangement time is given to an individual or the spokesman for a group to present a point of view, a problem or something of general interest for the district.

So go to the polls Saturday and vote for the candidates you have confidence in and believe will do the best job for the schools and for you.

On Second Thought

By GLENN F. LOGAN

In a recent letter directed to all law enforcement officers the FBI chief, J. Edgar Hoover, deplored the recent rise in bank robberies. He called attention to the fact that many of these forays were conceived by beginners or amateurs seeking "easy money."

He points out that few remain at large to enjoy the fruits of their crimes but that too many of the beginners are aware of this. Too much emphasis is placed on the robberies and too little on what happens to the perpetrators, he adds.

In the coming months, he says the FBI will sponsor a series of law enforcement conferences on bank robberies with the hope that the bandits and the would-be bandits come to know that detection, arrest and punishment are the certain end results of such crimes.

Retribution, most law enforcement officials will agree, is a major deterrent to crime. Which reminds us of an anecdote given us by a former prison official who had previously served as a sheriff in a downstate county.

This was sometime ago when a number of us had been discussing robbery in general and bank robbery in particular. We had been talking about the rash of bank robberies that broke out in the nation in the late 1920's and the early 1930's. The bandits struck everywhere, large cities, small cities and country towns. Places that no one had heard of popped up in the papers as date lines for operations of some bank robbing gang.

As Mr. Hoover points out most of the stories dealt with the ease with which some lone or a gang descended on a bank and within a few minutes had fled with thousands of dollars. This may very well have caused people to say to themselves:

"My goodness, how long has this been going on? I believe I will try this."

The prison official pointed out that criminals, like anyone else, are inclined to follow the line of least resistance, and therefore would endeavor to avoid those places where punishment was swift and certain or could be fatal.

"When we were in the middle of a wave of bank robberies," he recalled, "I had occasion to go to Kentucky to pick up a prisoner that we wanted. The man was in a jail in a county seat in the hill country. It was a pretty little town but rather isolated--not even a railroad.

"There were a number of stores around the courthouse square and a bank. It looked to me like a place that would be attractive to some gang of bank bandits.

"I voiced my thoughts to the sheriff.

"Oh, I don't know," he said, "see there are a number of bank hold-ups going on in various places but we are lucky. I reckon. No one has bothered us for quite a few years. It kind of got around the state that we don't like bank robbers here.

"You did have a hold-up then?"

"Not exactly a hold-up, the sheriff said, 'It was a burglary but as it turned out we had guns. The night telephone girl was the one that called me...2 or 3 o'clock in the morning it was...Tells me she thought she saw someone in the bank.

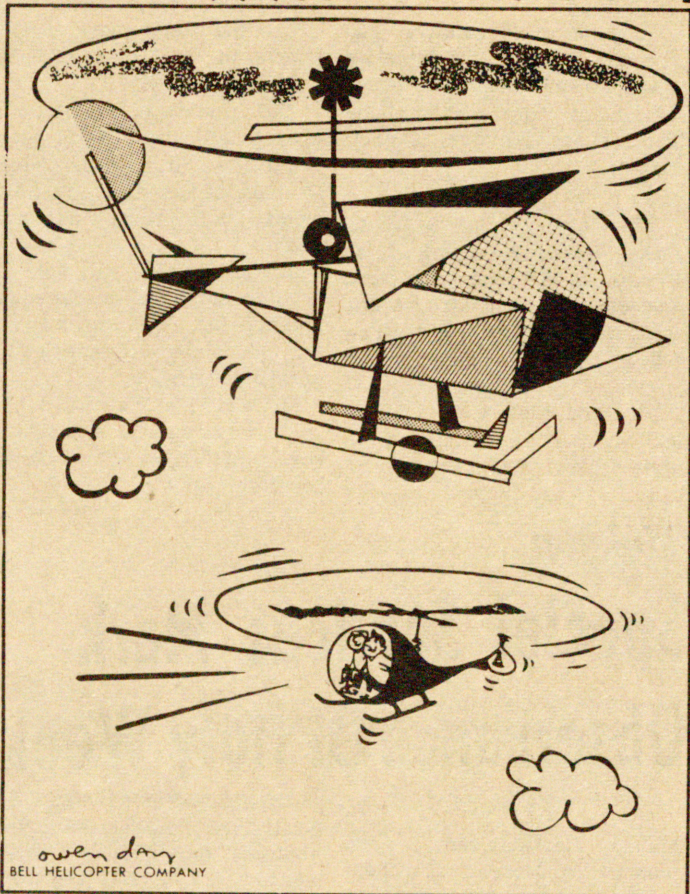

"I told her to call my deputy and have him meet me here on the square but not to come so anybody at the bank could see him. Well, he met me and we took a little look-see and sure enough some people were in the bank, and none of them belonged there.

"Looked like mebbe four but couldn't tell for sure. Says I to my deputy, 'Looks like they are getting ready to leave and when they do we'll divide the work. I'll take the first one, you take the second one and we'll split up the others. We weren't sure whether there was four or five.

"Well, sir, when they came out they strung out a little. I took the first one, and my deputy took the second. There was only four so just divided the last two. The fourth fellow started to run but my deputy's shot dropped him before he got 10 yards.

"This fourth man was still alive when we got to them but he died by sunup. So did the third man. The first two were dead right now...Since then we ain't had any trouble. It got around the state what happened so anybody in the hold-up or burglary business knew we didn't like that sort of business here."

Letters To The Editor

LINCOLN-WAY ELECTION

Dear Sir:

The question to be answered by the voters of Lincoln-Way community high school district Saturday as they vote for members of the Lincoln-Way board of education is essentially simple:

Which of the seven candidates whose names will appear on the ballot are best qualified to fill the three positions? Which three of the seven can the voters depend on to do what is right and best for the boys and girls who attend Lincoln-Way now, and will attend in the future?

We sincerely believe that the interests of the young people will be served better by the election of Elias Brown of Mokena, Wendell Morrison of Frankfort and Loren Schleeter of Manhattan. Brown and Schleeter are members at present. Morrison is a candidate for the first time.

To reject two of these candidates simply because they have already served on the board is to deny utterly the value of experience. It is like firing capable, dedicated employees who have been doing a good job in favor of hiring new ones without even an interview.

Anyone familiar with the business of operating our schools realizes that becoming an effective member of a board of education is not an overnight accomplishment. It is not done by ignoring school problems for a lifetime suddenly to say, "I'm for better schools now and want to be elected to the board. Elect me and I'll make everything come out all right, raise teachers' pay and cut your taxes."

On the contrary, serving the boys and girls at Lincoln-Way, as well as the taxpayers who make it possible for them to go there, takes time -- thoughtful, studious time devoted to the school's problems. It takes willingness to become acquainted with the complex problems facing our schools today, especially at Lincoln-Way situated in the middle of a population explosion and rapidly changing community.

So, let's judge the candidates on the basis of their qualifications rather than vague "we can do it better" generalities.

Surely familiarity with school problems -- and specifically Lincoln-Way problems -- is an important qualification. Those in our community who have been spending time and effort to help Lincoln-Way become the best possible school for the youth of Lincoln-Way have seen no evidence of such familiarity -- or even a serious effort to gain it -- on the part of the other four candidates.

None, to our knowledge, has shown other than a critical interest in Lincoln-Way. None, to our knowledge, has attempted to become familiar with the educational and financial problems facing Lincoln-Way, and facing them as board members if they are elected.

None, to our knowledge, has actively participated in the Citizens' Committee meetings which helped Lincoln-Way out of several desperate situations. None, to our knowledge, has visited the school to become intimately acquainted with its physical plant or educational program. None has visited board meetings to see what problems a growing school such as

"What in the world were you using? I wanted to know, Shotguns?"

"No," he said, "we like the .44 or the .45 pistol here." "Quite a deterrent, the .44 or the .45, one might say."

Lincoln-Way faces. Several, and their supporters, have put in appearances elsewhere, with plenty of un-supportable criticism, but without constructive proposals for solving Lincoln-Way's problems.

Contrast this with the record of the three candidates endorsed in this letter.

Loren Schleeter, Manhattan farmer, has been a member of Lincoln-Way's Board for eight terms. He knows the school and its problems from actual experiences. His knowledge of school matters is great. He has devoted uncounted hours to thoro study of the legal, financial, and educational aspects of running schools. Mr. Schleeter has suffered with Lincoln-Way during its difficult times; he has shared in the joy of accomplishment at the many fine things he has helped to bring about at Lincoln-Way. His experience and dedication are needed at Lincoln-Way.

Mr. Brown, business man of Mokena, is completing his first term. We believe it would be a mistake to deprive Lincoln-Way of the knowledge and the experience he has gained during his first term. He has been a faithful member, has attended all meetings, has done important liaison work for the board, knows Lincoln-Way and its problems and aspirations. We recommend that he be returned to the board for another term.

Mr. Morrison, business man of Frankfort, is thoro familiar with Lincoln-Way and determined to help it grow in service to the community. He has demonstrated his interest by his faithful service as a member of Citizens Consulting Committee, where his sound counsel has been of great value.

Another point we urge the voters of Lincoln-Way to consider is geographical distribution of board members. Were three of the other four candidates to be elected, Mokena and Frankfort would have no representation on the seven-member board and New Lenox would have three (and possibly four) of the seven. Some will say geography is unimportant, that regardless of a member's locality, he will represent ALL the people equally well. This, of course, pre-supposes that a single area of the Lincoln-Way community might be blessed with seven outstanding citizens each better qualified than citizens in all other areas to serve as board members. In such a case, we should, of course, elect those seven. But we do not believe that such is the situation in the Lincoln-Way community. We do believe there are qualified people in every area, and on that premise, recommend continuance of the traditional geographical dispersion of members.

There is something more to be said for having at least one board member from each major population center. Naturally such a member will be more intimately acquainted with the make-up of his area -- the educational needs of its young people, the financial capability of its taxpayers, and the attitude of its people generally on school problems. Such a member is also able to call attention to school problems and needs to the community from which he hails. He can do this in many ways, through church and club affiliations, civic organizations, and the like.

To leave large population centers unrepresented is not healthy for the school. It can result in a lack of interest in helping solve school problems. It could lead to a break-down in communications between school and public.

In conclusion, the candidates we endorse have demonstrated in practical ways their dedication to a better Lincoln-Way. They want, as we believe you do, the best possible education for our youth. They want the best possible teachers. They want good educational facilities. They recognize full well the financial problems involved in achieving those goals. It is because we believe that Messrs. Brown, Morrison, and Schleeter are well qualified to represent all of us in the Lincoln-Way community that we recommend their election next Saturday, April 13th.

Sincerely yours,

Robert O. Geuther

MORE ON LINCOLN-WAY ELECTION

Dear Sir:

Two weeks ago, I took a letter to the Mokena News-Bulletin with the cheerful thought, "This is the last letter I intend to write on any public issue, I am tired. Later events have changed my mind.

I have no use for rumor spreading or false propaganda. I will speak for what I believe and accept full responsibility for the consequences.

I have heard of a "Gentleman's Agreement" that decrees the membership of the Lincoln-Way High School Board has been parcelled out by boundaries. One from Lincoln Estates, one from Frankfort, one from Mokena, two from New Lenox, two from Manhattan.

Eleven or twelve years ago when Lincoln-Way was in process of organization the population of the area was less than half what it now is. There was no Arbury Hills, no Kohlwood, no Brightwood, no Glenn Heights, no Rolling Heights, no Arby Hills, Woodland Circle, Sunny Acres, Marley had only begun to grow, just to mention a few around Mokena.

A "Gentlemen's Agreement" can stand only when conditions remain the same. Does any one seriously believe these new residents who bear a large share of the taxes are going to be bound by an agreement in which they had no voice?

We, and I refer to the group of hard working people throughout the area who worked so hard on the junior college issue, felt we had a job to finish. We have long felt we needed a whole new board at Lincoln-Way that would be constructively critical while working toward improvement of the school. We waited to see what candidates might appear that we could endorse.

Nothing happened. We went first to Frankfort and talked to a number of people, urging several to become candidates for the L-W board. They were not interested. Most said, "Not this year, maybe in 2 years or so." We thought we had found a very fine prospect but he finally decided it wasn't the right time for him, either.

Up to this time no one had announced for the board except the incumbents, I believe. We knew we had to find our candidates so we could have literature printed. Time was getting short.

We wanted men who are devoted to the public school system, who believe it is a vital part of our American way of life, who are serious about demanding higher academic standards, serious about economy in building and equipment. We didn't ask them what their religion is, nor their politics, I don't know now what they are and I don't care. All we need to know is that they are sincere, honest men who will work hard for a better school, meanwhile keeping a careful eye on all expenditures. They are very conscious of the need for economy without sacrificing quality of education.

When we were unable to find a candidate at Frankfort we then decided to find three men who would truly represent all the people of Lincoln-Way District. Labor is represented by Bob Fuley, farmers by David McClure, and the professional and white collar workers by Harold Miller.

This is a good slate. Let's take our school out of politics and get about the business of building one of the best schools in this whole area. It can be done. Oh yes, indeed! It can be done.

Sincerely,
Amy C. Engelhardt
Mrs. Rudolph Engelhardt

CANDIDATE SPEAKS

Dear Sir:

On April 13, from 12 noon to 7 p.m., the voters of Lincoln-Way District are asked to cast their ballot for three directors of their choice for the L-W High School board.

Tho other names appear on the ballot, the Lincoln-Way Information Committee is sponsoring three of these men. They are: Robert Fuley of Mokena, a millwright at the Ford Plant at Chicago Heights; Harold Miller of New Lenox, a teacher at Joliet Township High School; and myself, David McClure, a farmer of Manhattan township.

You will recall, it was the L-W Information Committee who worked diligently and succeeded in defeating the Southwest Suburban Jr. College referendum on June 16, 1962.

As candidate for L-W school board, I am proud to be sponsored by the L-W Information Committee. The entire group, including myself, favor a better education for the teen-agers of today.

No one can say taxes will go down. However, it can be said that I believe it is necessary for each student to receive the kind of education where he can compete, upon graduation, with the caliber of students that graduate from other high schools. And tax-wise, I favor looking into every possible method of using the taxpayers' money as efficiently as possible to produce the kind of graduates we as parents want.

In conclusion, may I remind the voters of L-W District, that in order to carry out the principles listed here, it is necessary to have the support of other board members who would also try to work for a better school. Therefore, if you decide that the Lincoln-Way Information Committee has chosen three capable candidates for the high school board, please indicate the same by voting April 13th.

Sincerely,
DAVID MCCLURE
Manhattan, Ill.

Business & Finance

MAURICE P. ANGLAND

The stock market has been reflecting some of the very bullish sentiments of such leading sources of financial reports as Fortune, Barron's Weekly, U.S. News & World Report, and a number of the top advisory services.

The analysts who base part of their market predictions on the rise or fall of the Dow Jones Industrial averages thru specific levels, were watching the 700 level closely. Last Friday the averages went thru that figure easily and did so on volume. This has given considerable courage to many traders.

There is a very considerable amount of idle capital which must soon seek profitable employment. Institutions cannot hold cash or short term investments indefinitely. Their expenses of operation have been mounting and this is particularly if they compete for services of professionally trained men as associates.

The expectation of lower business activity and recession rather than for a very optimistic business picture, had wide currency and substantial amounts of investment funds remained uninvested. Now we have the majority of financial writers, calling attention to very much improved business statistics.

Analysts are pointing to the fact that the market activity is now of a broad nature and not largely confined to the leaders. The widening of the market with more issues being traded and the issues hitting new highs, considerably greater than the number reaching new lows, strengthens belief that investment sentiment is becoming optimistic.

Commentators of brokerage firms quoted in news columns, have been pointing out that the market leaders have been autos, farm equipment, oil, steel, transportation, etc. and that we can expect the secondary issues to follow soon.

There have been substantial losses to commercial credit and factoring organizations in the past several months. We have been informed that in a few of the best publicized instances of such losses thru misrepresentation and fraud, that the lending organizations cannot afford to take the precautions necessary to avoid such losses completely. Their profitable operation is attested by the speed with which earnings absorb the unusual losses.

A recent front page article in Barron's Weekly was titled "Free and Easy Credit - It Has Cost Both Borrowers and Lenders Dearly". The article mentions a number of recent well known losses of lending agencies and expresses the belief the cause is loose lending and borrowing, the credit policy of the Administration and the Federal Reserve. The Federal Reserve is also criticized by the joint economic committee of Congress, has been very critical of the Federal Reserve with charges that it has stubbornly kept credit tight.

Hints For Homeowners

BY: JAMES FIZZELL,

ASSOC. FARM ADVISER

Chances are you will receive a beautiful flowering plant to brighten your home this Easter week. Whether it is an Easter lily, a hydrangea or a pot of flowering spring bulbs, proper care will prolong the life of your plants.

Watering is most important. Be sure your plant doesn't dry out, but don't over water. Keep the plant in a bright but not direct sunlight. If possible, keep the plant in a cool location at night. Temperatures of about 60 degree F. would be best because they would slow down deterioration of the flowers at night.

Spring bulbs which have been forced or East lily bulbs can be moved outdoors and will often flower the next year. After the lily flowers have died continue watering until the foliage ripens then cease watering and dry the plant off completely. In May knock the plant out of the pot and plant it outdoors.

When the spring bulbs finish blooming cut off the stems and continue watering until the leaves dry up. When dried off, remove the bulbs and store them in a cool dry place. In fall plant the bulbs in a sunny flower bed.

Hydrangeas forced for Easter are not hardy outdoors. To carry your hydrangea over for reblooming indoors, carefully follow these directions. Cut shoots back to several inches above the soil, or leave 2 to 3 nodes on each shoot. Repot, using this mixture: 3 parts soil 3 parts acid peat; and 1 part sand. When re-established, grow on in full sun. In May, sink the pot outside in a flower bed receiving dappled shade during the warmer part of the day. Mulch, water regularly, and start fertilizing. For extra-large flower heads, limit the number of stems per plant to two or three.

Leave outside until frost is near, then lift the pot and bring it inside to a cool, sunny room (50 Degrees to 60 Degrees F.) or a sun porch that can be maintained above freezing. It is desirable to keep the foliage on until Nov. 1, but at that time pick off all of the leaves. Defoliation can also be accomplished by putting the plant in total darkness until the leaves drop off naturally.

The leafless plant must then be subjected to cool temperatures (50 degrees or less, preferably 35 to 40 degrees F.) for six weeks. Buds developing during this cool period; without it, flower buds usually blast. Keep the soil somewhat drier than usual, but not so dry that the stems shrivel.

Following this treatment, the plant can be brought into a fairly cool (55 degree to 60 degree F.), bright room until leaves appear. Water more freely. Then shift to a sunny window and warmer temperatures, (60 degree F. at night, 10 to 15 degrees warmer during the day). Check soil moisture daily, and fertilize regularly.

By severely pruning your hydrangea each year, you can keep the plant at a reasonable size and flower it successfully for several seasons. Repot or sift as necessary. Cuttings taken in early spring can also be grown into blooming sized plants by the following spring. When rooted, pot up and shift into larger containers as needed. Pinch back the shoots twice to promote branching and prevent tall, ungainly growth. The last pinch should be no later than July.

For more information on care of flowering plants contact our office and request the pamphlet, Flowering Gift Plants.

Explain Test Program At L-W

Lincoln-Way high school's April meeting of the Parent-Teacher group proved to be a varied and highly interesting program. The meeting was held last night from 8 to 10 p.m. in the school auditorium. A good turnout of parents was experienced.

A 15-minute review of the vaudeville show opened the evening's program. The show, scheduled for tomorrow and Saturday evenings in the school auditorium, features an original script prepared by a student writer's committee. The show is under the faculty direction of Larry Cullison. He is being assisted by Tom Olson and Robert Taylor.

Following the vaudeville skit, a business meeting was conducted with the president of PTG, John Porrick, presiding. The main program of the evening, "Testing" was then presented by the members of Lincoln-Way's guidance dept. The object of this program was to explain to parents: the purpose of testing, the types of tests used in the school testing program, the meaning of test scores in general and the meaning of the percentile score and the raw or standard score.

Discussion of the testing program included the introduction to the testing program and general information presented by Alice C. Gorman, director of guidance.

Staff members of the department discussed the individual tests: Freshman tests, Martin Mackay; sophomore and senior tests, Gene McGivern; and the junior test, Jonas Lashmet. A question and answer period followed the interpretation by these three counselors of the differential aptitude test, the Iowa test of educational development and the Illinois statewide test.

Arbury Hills

Had Tents But Lacked Boys; Cancel Camp-Out

The Summit Hill Boy Scout Troop No. 10 week-end camp out had to be called off, because of an insufficient number of boys to attend.

The troop recently purchased four tents for their camp outs. These tents will sleep four or five boys, and they were purchased by the proceeds from their monthly newspaper drives.

The Teens Club will hold its second meeting in April at the school on Monday evening, April 22, from 7:30 P.M. until 10:00 P.M.

The Arbury Hills Civic Association held their April meeting at the school on Tuesday, April 2. In order to establish a voting quorum of the required 25, the use of proxies was needed in addition to the 21 voting members present at the meeting.

A vote was taken on the previous noted motion to amend the by-laws to set the necessary quorum for voting on official business from its present 25 down to 14. The motion was approved unanimously.

The second motion pertaining to the by-laws, was tabled until the September meeting. This motion was dealing with the limiting of the number of meetings to be held per year for the organization.

Membership dues for the Civic Association for the year 1963 are now due. The paid up membership expired as of April 1. All officers and directors can write up the new memberships. There have been new membership cards printed.

These cards will allow both husband and wife to have a membership card with the same number. Anyone who had previously been given one of the old blue membership cards, can obtain one of the new white cards from their area representative.

entative of any officer or director.

The next meeting of the Civic Association will take place on Tuesday evening, May 7, at 8 o'clock at the school. There will be two speakers.

One speaker will be a representative of Edward Feeley, the builder, to discuss the necessity of asking the ICC for a rate increase for the water bill.

The second speaker will be an expert on the procedure for, and benefit of, incorporating Arbury Hills.

For the June meeting of the Civic Association there is an effort being made to obtain a speaker to discuss the disadvantages of incorporation for Arbury Hills.

Work is going forth on the spring dance sponsored by the Civic Association for the benefit of the potential Little League for Arbury Hills.

The date of the dance is April 20, a Saturday; the starting time is 8:00 P.M.; the cost will be $1.50 per person, $3.00 per couple.

The music will be provided by Wayne Swanberg and his Rhythm Knights. There will be food served at the dance. The dance will be held at the V.F.W. hall in Mokena. The hall has been donated by the V.F.W. since the proceeds from the dance are being donated for a useful cause, the Little League.

The Arbury Hills Baby Sisters Cooperative will hold their April meeting at the home of Mrs. Richard Mansell of 9507 on Wednesday evening, April 17, at 10 o'clock. Anyone who plans on attending this meeting should contact Mrs. Mansell at 479-5772 before the day of the meeting.

The Arbury Hills Kindergarten Organization elected officers April 3. They are: president, Carol Burdett; vice president, Pat Tanis; Shirley Boothe, Recording Secretary, Marge Munday, corresponding secretary; Mary Mundt.

The three directors elected are Louise Hendricksen, Gerry O'Neill, and Sus Williams.

H. James Wrath, the superintendent of the school, addressed the group on the need for an increase in the educational tax levy from 96¢ to $1.17 per $100 of assessed valuation.

The new officers will take over their offices at the May meeting, the date of which is to be announced.

There are definitely enough children registered in the summer session of the kindergarten to assure the holding of a class. There are, however, still openings for a few more children. If anyone is desirous of having his child attend kindergarten, a deposit of $10.00 is required, and may be paid either to Mrs. Brian Williams or Mrs. John Hayden.

The summer session of the kindergarten will begin on June 5 and will continue through August 2. To be eligible a child must reside within the Summit Hill school district and have attained the age of six by Dec. 1, 1963.

The school election will take place at the school on Saturday, April 13, between the hours of 12 noon and 7 P.M.

There are three issues at stake for this election. There will be the election of three members of the Summit Hill school board. There will also be the election of members of the Lincoln-Way high school board. The third issue will be the proposed increase of 21 cents in the educational tax levy.

The Summit Hill Parent-Teacher Group will hold their meeting tonight, Thursday, April 11, at 8 o'clock in the school.

The elections are on the agenda for this organization also. Mr. Wrath will also be present at this meeting to discuss the tax levy increase.

The Bingo group will hold its get-together at the home of Mrs. Allan Borchert of 9436 West Elm Avenue, on Thursday evening, April 18, at 8:00 P.M.

The First Nighters held their meeting at the home of Mrs.

Say Marley Golf Course Will Be Ready In May

Willow Run golf course, a nine-hole, daily fee links, is to open in May, it was announced by the owners, all members of the Langland family.

Four Langlands, John E., Edward R., Clarence O. and John, comprise Willow Run Inc., owner, developer and operator.

Willow Run is at the east edge of Marley with the entrance off

Elmer Schranz of 9505 West Hickory Street. The hostesses prize was won by Mrs. Ann Maschmeyer. The next meeting of the group will take place at the home of Mrs. Marvin Rognlie of 9534 West Hickory Street on Thursday evening, May 2, at 8:00 P.M.

There was a baby shower for Mrs. Maschmeyer at the First Nighters meeting consisting only of those who belong to the club.

The layout has a total yardage of some 3,100 yards with a par of 35. The fairways are watered. There is one Par 5 hole -- 510 yards, with a water hazard that can trap a second shot if hit too strong. There is another water hole in the lot, a Par 3 job.

The course is rolling and there is one hole on which most players will be unable to see the green for their second shots and will have to fly on instruments.

HOMER NEWS

BY ELIZABETH ANDERSON

Mrs. Reed Burch entertained at a birthday dinner in her home on Cedar Rd., last Sunday, in honor of her daughter, Mrs. John Garabrant, whose birthday was March 30. Guests were the Garabrant family.

Mechanics tools belonging to Merle Angus of Gougar Rd. and valued at $200, were stolen from his car while it was parked recently in the Silver Cross hospital parking lot in Joliet. Mr. and Mrs. Earl Burnworth of Bruce Rd. have returned from a southern vacation.

Mrs. Robert Shepherd Sr. attended the board meeting at Hannah Harwood Girls Club in Joliet last Tuesday morning. She is the delegate from the Wayside Workers Circle of King's Daughters. She gave a report of the meeting at the Thursday meeting of the Circle. Mrs. Lola Storm gave the Bible Story and Mrs. Stanley Cox read the Palm Sunday story from Mark.

The hostesses, Mrs. Don Aspel and Mrs. Edna Mergler, served dainty refreshments from the table set appropriately for the Easter season. A feature of the refreshments was birthday cake with candles in honor of the Circle president, Mrs. Ira Anderson.

Routine reports were given at the business session and plans discussed for observing the 60th anniversary of the organization of the Circle, which will be in October of this year. The next meeting will be held at the church on May 2 when a plant and bake sale will be a feature.

Holy week services for Homer, Protestants will begin with a Maundy Thursday Communion service at 7:30 p.m., April 11, with reception of any who desire to become church members at that time. The Good Friday Union service will be held at Lockport, Congregational Church, from 12 noon to 3 p.m. This is divided into seven periods, and one may attend any or all of the service. Rev. Cox will speak from 2:10 to 2:35 the special music for this period being furnished by members of the Homer Choir.

On Easter morning Rev. Cox will participate in the Sunrise service at Palos Park Foundation on Southwest Highway. Several persons from here plan to attend. Breakfast will be served at Homer Church by the Youth group from 7:30 to 9 a.m.

Sunday school will be omitted on Easter morning to give time for two identical worship services which are set for 9:30 and 10:45. The Youth choir will sing at the early service and the adult choir at the later time.

Rev. Cox's sermon topic on Easter will be "Dry Bones and God."

Here are some things to remember that are coming up in the near future: School election, April 13; at Homer School, 33-C. Three men are running for the board with two to be elected; they are Merritt J. Cagwin, Joyce Purdy and Otto Moravec; vote for the two of your choice.

Salad luncheon, May 9, 11:30 to 1:30, at Homer twp. Fire House on Cedar Rd., sponsored by the Auxiliary. Salad donations will be appreciated.

Send donations for Rummage Sale to Shady Oaks Camp. The sale sponsored by Homer Fire Auxiliary, will be held at Mudrock's in Joliet, May 24 and 25. For pickup service, please call Mrs. Frank Paul, Jr., Cedar Rd.

Annual May breakfast at Homer Church, May 15.

Unpaid Personal Property Tax Problem To Be Aired

A public meeting to discuss the problem of delinquent personal property taxes is to be held 8 p.m. next Thursday at the Homer Consolidated grade school on Cedar Road.

Meeting is being sponsored by the Homer School club.

Eugene M. Malone, secretary of organization for the Will County Farm Bureau, will be the main speaker. Malone will present facts on the tax, its payment and nonpayment, as well as suggestions as to what can be done to enforce payment. He reports that in Illinois counties where a vigorous collection is in effect, collections are almost 100 per cent complete.

Will County Farm Bureau has been a leading advocate of better administration of local property tax laws. In this cause, Malone has appeared before many civic and educational groups throughout the county and has written a number of articles on the subject of property tax delinquency and its effect upon local government.

Raymond Carlson, secretary of the Homer 33-C school board, will present statistics pointing out the school's need for its share of these uncollected taxes.

The public has been urged to attend the meeting. Refreshments will be served by the second grade mothers.

The only range better than a good old gas range ...

is a good new gas range

"Exciting" is the word that best describes the many new features on today's gas ranges... features that make your time in the kitchen more pleasant, more productive. Best proof is to see the new ranges firsthand. When you do, you'll find features like these—yours only with a great new gas range.

• "Program Cooking"—automatic oven controls that start and stop the cooking process, then keep food at serving temperature for hours.

• Automatic top burners—Precise control of selected temperatures; makes any cooking vessel an "automatic" appliance.

• Smokeless broiling—You broil with the broiler door closed. The gas flame consumes greasy smoke that otherwise would escape into the kitchen.

• Precise control—Countless shades of heat between high and low—instantly. And when you turn gas off, it's off. No hangover heat to raise kitchen temperature.

• Beauty—The modernity of gas range cooking features is matched by handsome, up-to-the-minute styling that brightens your kitchen like a jewel.

• More for your money—You know gas cooks better for less. Now see the new gas ranges, including models with the built-in look that don't have to be built in.

Stop this week at your appliance dealer's or Northern Illinois Gas Company showroom and see why a good new gas range is the only range better than a good old gas range.

Damping - off and other vegetable seedling blights are favored by humid conditions and cold, wet soil. Any of the soil-borne fungi that attack under conditions unfavorable for rapid seed germination can ruin your gardening "luck," says University of Illinois plant pathologist, Mal Shurtleff.

Think before you lift those heavy weights around the farm or in the home. Your health and safety are at stake.

Each year thousands of farm people are victims of sprains, strains, hernias and other injuries caused by lifting. Most of these injuries could have been avoided with a little care and foresight.

The Midwest Plan Service has released another in its series of equipment plan books for livestock producers--this one written especially for beef feeders.

University of Illinois agricultural engineer Art Meuhling says the 72-page book contains dozens of plans and diagrams representing the latest in home-made beef equipment.

You will find detailed drawings and cutting lists to help you build many kinds of storage units, room dividers, stairways, workshops and other items for the home in the "Home Improvement Plans Book." Send $1 to Department of Agricultural Engineering, University of Illinois, Urbana.

The National Junior Vegetable Growers Association is an organization for young people between the ages of 14 and 21 years who are interested in fruit and vegetable production. The group promotes and sponsors several educational projects, such as a production and marketing contest, a demonstration contest and a judging, grading and identification contest.

Barns are the principal work centers for daily farm chores. At this season of the year, many barns become cluttered with an accumulation of items during the winter. Alleyways or work areas should be cleared of such obstacles, and suitable places should be found for storing them.

If you don't use some controls, underground soil insects will eat about 10 percent of your crop this year. If you put this loss on a dollars-and-cents basis, the Illinois bill will run more than 50 million dollars.

Only a small percentage of the vegetable seed on the market has been treated. Unless you buy this seed, consider treating your seed before planting, advises a University of Illinois plant pathologist. To be sure, use both eradication and protective seed treatments.

35 Suburban Residents Enter TB Sanitarium

Thirty five suburban Cook county residents entered the sanitarium in Hinsdale for the treatment of tuberculosis during the month of March.

Dr. Edward A. Piszczek, field director of The Suburban Cook County Tuberculosis Sanitarium District, said the new admissions were slightly lower than February when the number was 38 from the County, and slightly higher than the total of 33 for January.

The March admissions included six residents of Oak Lawn, (four of them from one family - the father and 3 daughters), three from Cicero, two each from Evanston, Berwyn, Chicago Heights, Forest Park, and Robbins. Also a resident from each of the following suburbs: Argo, Blue Island, Bridgeview, Brookfield, Calumet City, Des Plaines, Glenview, Harvey, Maywood, Melrose Park, Midlothian, Oak Forest, Park Forest, Schiller Park, Skokie, and Stone Park.

As of April 1, a total of 143 suburban Cook county residents were hospitalized at the sanitarium, which is tax supported. Dr. Piszczek reminds suburbanites that early treatment of tuberculosis makes possible quicker cure and resuming of normal life.

"Early treatment is made possible by early detection," he said. "And because in the early stages of the disease there may not be any symptoms, it is wise to check regularly with a chest X-ray."

Dr. Piszczek also pointed out, "With the high incidence of influenza during the past winter months, any person having a cold or cough lasting longer than two or three weeks, should be sure to check with a chest X-ray."

The free chest X-ray is available at all three of the Tuberculosis Sanitarium District clinics: Forest Park, 7556 W.

Jackson boulevard; Monday and Thursday from 9 a.m. to 8 p.m.; Tuesday, Wednesday and Friday, 9 a.m. to 5 p.m.; Saturday, 9 a.m. to noon.

Harvey clinic, 15948 S. Halsted, Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Friday from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m.; Thursday, noon to 8 p.m.

NI-Gas To Sell $20-Million Bond Issue Around July 10

Northern Illinois Gas Company announced plans to sell $20 million of 25-year first mortgage bonds in July.

The company, according to L. L. Starrett, NI-Gas treasurer, expects to file the necessary registration statement with the Securities and Exchange Commission and petition the Illinois commerce commission early in June.

Depending upon market conditions and the required Commission clearances, it is tentatively planned to offer the new issue for competitive bidding in which event bids would be scheduled to be opened on July 10.

The $20 million bond issue, Starrett said, is a portion of the estimated $90 million new capital requirements for the company's projected previously announced $200 million five-year (1963-67) constructive program. No further public financing is planned for 1963.

The utility's 1963 construction program has been increased from $42 million to $48 million because of advancement of the construction date (from 1964 to 1963) of a major gas distribution line. This new 30-mile pipeline will connect with another large-diameter NI-Gas line near Lisle (about 26 miles west of Chicago's Loop) and, when completed, will deliver additional quantities of gas to the rapidly-growing south suburban area.

Major items in the $200 million five-year program include about $142 million to connect new customers and to provide for additional space heating business, and about $41 million for further underground gas storage facilities.

Starrett said the company's $200 million five-year construction program is larger than the total of NI-Gas' gross plant account at the end of 1956.

Northern Illinois Gas serves about 800,000 customers in 343 communities in northern Illinois outside Chicago. About two-thirds of its customers use gas for space heating.

Tinley Hospital Fashion Show Delights Audience

In a setting for fresh spring flowers and more exotic foliage, more than 40 models displayed the fashions of spring before a delighted audience.

But this is a style show with a difference. All garments modeled have been made by the models -- patients, activity program workers, and volunteers of Tinley Park State hospital. Their spring fashion show, held Friday at the hospital was the culmination of three months' work. All decorations will remain up for the hospital's Open House Sunday, April 28.

Shortly after the Christmas decorations were cleared away, patients, with the guidance of activity program workers began planning their dresses for the spring showing. Thru the many steps, the selection of materials, selection of the pattern, the cutting, stitching, fitting, the patients worked on their dresses. Other groups made thousands of flowers which made the ward into a spring garden. Friday was the climax of this work, when the models paraded their fashions before an audience of relatives and friends.

The spring fashion show is one of the major activities which the activities therapy department puts on each year at Tinley Park State hospital. Another is the "International Coffee Sip" held each fall, at which friends of the hospital are invited to a coffee hour, for which committees of patients, an activity program worker and volunteer have planned table decorations, coffee, and food characteristic of certain countries. A new activity has been planned for this June: an Hawaiian luau, with exotic blooms, special decorations, and special foods. At all of these activities patients act as hosts and hostesses to their relatives and friends from the community. Many hours work go into the preparation for these days.

This department works closely with other members of the hospital's professional personnel in planning and carrying out the treatment program for individual patients.

Every day special groups of patients meet to pursue a special interest or activity. Some of these are flower arranging classes, wood shop projects, a hiking club, which will begin this month, in which groups of patients will hike into Tinley Park for shopping, accompanied by an activity program worker. Each year the patients plant a vegetable garden on a plot of farm land located on the hospital grounds. Patio parties are held when the tomatoes and corn are ripe and these home grown foods are doubly good tasting to the people who helped raise them. A flower garden with over 100 rose bushes, plus at least 20 varieties of other annuals and perennials brightens the hospital grounds all season.

Recreational activities are square dance groups, weekly bowling groups, and quiet game sessions for elderly patients. For new patients, a team composed of an activity worker and her committee of five patients welcome the newcomers to the hospital, introduce them to the staff and patients with whom they will be living and take them on a tour of the hospital.

Since one of the basic needs of people is to perform useful service, many patients have industrial therapy assignments. A member of this department assigns and supervises the work of patients in various jobs within the hospital. These may include combing hair for less able patients, counting linens, pouring coffee in the dining rooms, cleaning or typing assignments. As a reward for this work patients who complete these assignments attend a special "workers party" every Thursday evening. A special effort is made to have unusual entertainment and special refreshments. Community groups often participate in making these evenings a success by presenting slide programs, musical shows, refreshments, and the like.

Musical therapy plays a large part in this program.

Coast Guard Academy Exam Set For Dec. 7

The 88th annual examination for admission to the U.S. Coast Guard Academy at New London, Conn., described by President Kennedy as "second to none of its sister academies" will be held Dec. 7, 1963 in over 1000 cities of the United States, its possessions and selected cities abroad.

Appointments as Cadet, United States Coast Guard, are made solely on the basis of competitive examination and prospective adaptability to military life. There are no congressional appointments or geographical quotas.

On his visit to the academy's famous training barque EAGLE during its stopover in Washington, D.C., during August 1962 the President praised the Coast Guard as "the oldest, continuous seagoing service". He also noted that the Coast Guard academy "attracts able young men from all sections of the country who love the sea and who recognize that the Coast Guard . . . has a very special opportunity to serve the American people and our country, not only in wartime but also in peacetime. And there is not anyone who has sailed any of our lakes, or oceans, who has not at one time or another been the beneficiary of the faithful service of the Coast Guard."

An applicant must be a high school senior or graduate, who has reached his 17th but not his 22nd birthday by July 1, 1964. Applicants still in high school must graduate and earn 15 units by June 30, 1964. The units must include three in English, two in algebra and one in plane geometry. Applicants must be in excellent physical condition, between 64 and 78 inches in height, with proportionate weight, and have at least 20/30 vision in each eye, correctible to 20/20.

The academy curriculum includes academic subjects and military training. Courses are conducted in engineering, the humanities and subjects related to the professional duties of a Coast Guard officer. Cadets are also schooled in the fundamentals of atomic science through the use of a nuclear reactor on the academy grounds.

During their training, cadets are paid $1333.80 per year. Upon completion of the academy education, cadets are commissioned as Ensigns in the Coast Guard and awarded Bachelor of Science degrees.

Extra - curricular activities include a variety of clubs and athletics. Coast Guard teams compete with many colleges in football, basketball, swimming, track, and other major sports under the direction of the well-known athlete Commander Otto Graham.

Coast Guard cadets spend a portion of each summer at sea, training aboard the bark EAGLE and major cutters. Past training cruises have taken the cadets to such interesting ports of call as Oslo, London, Copenhagen, Lisbon, and Antwerp.

The Coast Guard is a military service and is one of the five Armed Forces. While history finds the Coast Guard fighting in all of our wars with many recorded deeds of valor, traditionally the service takes its greatest pride in peacetime activities. Search and rescue, law enforcement, aids to navigation, merchant marine safety, boating safety, ocean weather stations, international ice patrol, and many other duties provide aid and comfort to people of all nations using the air or sea lanes.

For the academy graduate, post-graduate education is available in such fields as business administration, communications, civil engineering, electronics, oceanography, naval construction, and marine engineering. Post - graduate courses are conducted at advanced military schools and leading universities and colleges throughout the country.

Aviation is of increasing importance to Coast Guard operations, calling for many young officers to enter this exciting branch of the Coast Guard's organization to prevent disaster on the sea or land, during peace or war.

An information booklet and application forms for entering the Coast Guard Academy may be obtained by writing the Commandant (PTP-2), U.S. Coast Guard, Washington 25, D.C.

Long Illness Is Fatal To Orland Man

Jerome Homerding, 37, 139th and Will-Cook road, died there last Saturday night, April 6, following a long illness. He operated a radio and television repair business.

He was born in Palos township, Jan. 31, 1925, but had been an Orland resident for the past 30 years.

Besides his wife, the former Jean Hebel, Mr. Homerding is survived by five sons and a daughter, Billy, Dick, Larry, Tim Gary and Linda. Also his mother, Mrs. Alice Homerding and two sisters, Mrs. Irene Schleiss and Mrs. Joanne Dusek. His father, William Homerding, preceded him in death.

Removal was to the Herron and Son chapel at Berwyn from where services were held yesterday (April 10) to St. Michael's church, Orland Park. Interment was in the parish cemetery.

Farmers' Outlook Letter

BY L. H. SIMERL
(U. of I. Ag. Economist)

Changes in the poultry situation are expected to be small during the next 12 months. Costs of feed may be a little lower. Consumer buying power may be up about 5 percent, which is no more than the usual increase. Returns generally will not be much different from those of the past year.

EGGS. Production of eggs was about 3 percent less in the first three months of 1963 than in the like period of last year. Prices did not make their usual seasonal decline, but averaged about one cent a dozen higher than in 1962.

The number of layers on farms March 1 was estimated at 300 million, 1 percent less than a year earlier. Output per layer was down about 2 percent. The number of layers will continue below 1962 levels until 1963 pullets are added to laying flocks, but the rate of lay may come up to or slightly exceed year-before levels this spring.

Prospective supplies of eggs for the next six months are about the same as in the same period of a year ago. The increase in consumer buying power will be offset by the decline in consumer preference for eggs. Consequently prices seem likely to be about the same as in 1962.

The spring (January-June) hatch of egg-type chicks is believed to be up 2 or 3 percent from a year ago. This points to a somewhat similar increase in egg production in the last quarter of this year and the first quarter of 1964. Prices are expected to average about 1 cent a dozen lower than they were in the past six months.

BROILERS. Market supplies of broilers were nearly 10 percent larger during the past winter than they were a year before. The U.S. average price received by farmers was a little more than 15 cents a pound, a cent lower than in 1962.

Prospective supplies of broilers for the next three months are about the same as for the year before. Prices could hold around the 15-cent level.

Supplies of hatching eggs and chicks will become abundant by early summer. This may

Legion Bills In Congress

WASHINGTON -- Two bills have been introduced for the American Legion in the first session of the 88th Congress to strengthen the Veterans Preference Act of 1944.

H. R. 5403, introduced by Rep. Arnold Olsen (D-Mont.), would authorize the U. S. Civil Service Commission to issue subpoenas for witnesses and records in connection with hearings accorded to veterans under the provisions of the law. At the present time, the commission does not have this authority.

The American Legion believes such authority is necessary if the hearings granted veterans are to be "full and fair" hearings. This objective is sought by resolution 620 adopted at the Legion's 1962 National Convention.

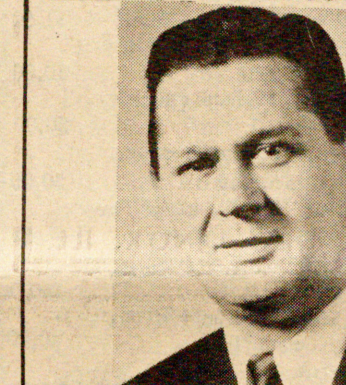

Rep. Olsen also introduced H.R. 5404, a measure directed against repeals by implication of provisions of the Veterans Preference Act of 1944. Such repeals are not favored by the law but they can and have been accomplished in the past. Because such repeals are so difficult to ferret out before they occur, the American Legion believes there is a definite need for this legislation. The Legion's resolution on this subject is 618, adopted at the 1962 National Convention.

Office Will Re-figure Benefits

People who are receiving social security payments do not seem to know that they can have their benefits re-figured. If a person earned more than $1200 in a calendar year, he may ask to have his payments recalculated.

Each spring as many as 100 persons come into the Social Security Office to see if they can receive a higher monthly payment. They can have it re-figured because their earnings from employment were more than $1200 in the last calendar year. This does not mean that their monthly payments will be increased. It depends on whether the yearly earnings are higher. For example, if a retired man goes back to work as a part-time watchman for $150 a month ($1800 a year) his social security benefit would increase only if his payments had been less than $73 a month. On the other hand, if he goes back to work on a steady job and was paid $4800 for a year - the maximum creditable to his account - he could increase his benefit.

Any person who earned over $1200 in 1962 might wish to check with the Social Security Office at 225 North Chicago street, Joliet, to see if their payments could be increased.

American Legion Again Spurring Flag Day Tribute

WASHINGTON -- If The American Legion and the National Institute of Dry Cleaning have their way, everyone owning a home or business will fly a clean bright American flag on Flag Day, June 14.

The combined goal of the two organizations is part of the "New Glory for Old Glory" campaign, a Freedoms Foundation award winning program spearheaded by the American Legion for the last 10 years. Under the program, the National Institute of Dry Cleaning is urging the nation's cleaning establishments to encourage Americans to fly their country's flag by offering to dry clean it free between June 1-14.

Last year, many Legion-sponsored Boy Scout troops collected flags and brought them to the dry cleaners.

WESTHAVEN VILLAGE "MOBILE HOMES" OPPOSED BY SCHOOL OFFICIALS

WESTHAVEN PROPOSALS SPELL DANGER FOR SCHOOL DISTRICTS SAYS COUNTY SUPT.

Noble J. Puffer, Cook County Superintendent of Schools, in a release dated April 5, 1963, opposed the proposal to add 550 "mobile" homes to the Village of Westhaven in Orland Township. Kirby School District Number 140 and Carl Sandburg High School District Number 230 would both be adversely affected by such an addition.

Mr. Puffer based his opposition on the fact that the Kirby Elementary School District in which the proposed homes lie now has a $1.40 educational tax rate, one of the highest in the State of Illinois, and that the enrollment in September of this year will completely fill all district classrooms to capacity. The 550 "mobile" homes would add another 550 children to the elementary schools based on previous experiences in similar areas.

There would be an immediate need for a minimum of 18 additional classrooms and associated facilities at an estimated cost of $500,000.00. At the present cost of educating a child in the Kirby district of $400.00 per child, the 550 additional revenue to maintain the current program. Additional building facilities and more students to educate would certainly be reflected in higher taxes for all citizens of the Kirby School District.

The "mobile" home, would bring very little additional revenue to the school districts, placing a further burden on the citizens who already own their homes in the district.

Mr. Puffer also pointed out that the Carl Sandburg High School would be similarly affected. It is estimated that the high school would receive approximately 75 students from such a development, with the number increasing in future years as young children grew to high school age.

It is a foregone conclusion stated Mr. Puffer, that the proposed development would result in a sharp increase in the taxes of Kirby School District and a moderate increase in the Carl Sandburg High School District tax rate, and that the high educational standards of the two districts would be in jeopardy. With these factors in mind, the proposed development would be a severe detriment to the school districts with the children attending school the real losers.

WESTHAVEN VILLAGE "MOBILE HOMES" OPPOSED BY SCHOOL OFFICIALS

Proposals before the Trustees of the Village of Westhaven to add 550 "mobile homes" to the Village is an issue of great concern to the school districts which would be affected. The school districts have consistently opposed the development of property that would depreciate the tax base, thereby resulting in higher taxes for all property owners in the school districts. School officials have offered their full cooperation to Village and County officers in an effort to develop Orland and Palos Townships into fine, outstanding residential areas. The schools spearheaded the effort to stop the proposal to build the large trailer court on 159th Street in Orland Township and the Supreme Court's decision of last week upheld the position of the schools.

The Boards of Education of Carl Sandburg High School, Orland Park Elementary School and Kirby Elementary School have unanimously agreed to continue to oppose, by all means possible, developments in the township that will flood the schools with children, depreciate the tax base and force a higher tax rate on all citizens.

The model "mobile home" now being displayed for sale by the developer in the Village of Westhaven is in reality a trailer, delivered on wheels and placed on a concrete foundation with an attached room. Trailers have been classified, for tax purposes, as personal property by the Cook County Assessor's Office, resulting in very little taxes. The assessor is studying the proposed "mobile home" to determine whether it should be classified as real or personal property. If it is assessed as real property, an approximate assessment of $5,000 is anticipated.

A maximum assessment of $5,000, at the current tax rate of $50 per $1000 assessed valuation, would result in a tax of $250 per year for the "mobile home." Eighty percent of the $250 annual tax would go to the elementary schools and the high school, approximately $100 for Kirby Elementary School and $100 for Carl Sandburg High School.

The cost of educating a child in the elementary school is $400 and $600 at the high school. The average "mobile home" as proposed would pay 25% of the cost of educating an elementary child and 15% of the cost of educating a high school child. The balance of the cost per child would have to come from HIGHER TAXES on all homes in the school districts affected.

In summary, the schools oppose this development for the following reasons:

- (1) THE DEVELOPMENT WOULD OVERLOAD FACILITIES AT BOTH KIRBY AND CARL SANDBURG WHICH WILL BE OPERATING AT CAPACITY IN THE 1963-64 SCHOOL TERM WITHOUT THE ADDITIONAL STUDENTS.
- (2) THE SMALL ADDITIONAL TAX COLLECTED FROM THESE HOMES WOULD PLACE THE SCHOOL DISTRICTS IN SEVERE FINANCIAL DIFFICULTY.
- (3) HALF DAY SESSIONS AND A REDUCED EDUCATIONAL PROGRAM ARE A DISTINCT POSSIBILITY.
- (4) HIGHER TAXES FOR ALL PROPERTY OWNERS WOULD RESULT.

The Boards of Education of Kirby, Orland, and Carl Sandburg will continue their policy of cooperating and assisting Village and Township officials of Orland Township in the desirable development of the villages and the unincorporated areas and will oppose proposals that would have a detrimental affect on the school systems and the children of the district.

Representatives of the schools will be present at 8:00 P.M. Monday April 15, 1963 at the Fernway School to explain their position and answer questions. ALL CITIZENS OF WESTHAVEN ARE URGED TO BE PRESENT.

Meeting - Monday, April 15, 1963

IAA Head Says Freeman Trying To Run A Bluff

William J. Kuhfuss, president of the Illinois Agricultural Association -- the statewide farm bureau -- has charged the U.S. Secretary of Agriculture with using half-truths and guesses to try to frighten farmers into voting "yes" in the 1963 wheat referendum.

Kuhfuss referred to the lengthy news-tape and news-reel messages sent out by Secretary of Agriculture Orville Freeman to announce May 21 as the date of the national wheat certificate program referendum. The compulsory program of allotments, quotas, mandatory land diversion, and multiple prices for wheat will go into effect for the 1964 crop if more than two-thirds of those voting in the referendum approve the program.

"The secretary," said Kuhfuss, "said that five farm organizations favor the wheat referendum and only Farm Bureau opposes it. What the Secretary did not say was that four out of every five farmers in this nation who belong to any general farm organization belong to Farm Bureau."

"The only true statement the secretary made," said Kuhfuss, "was that if the referendum passes, only 49.5 million acres of wheat will be planted. And this," Kuhfuss emphasized, "will be at the direction and dictation of the Secretary himself."

In an attempt to frighten away "no" votes, the Secretary stated that a "yes" vote will mean two-dollar wheat and a "no" vote will mean one-dollar wheat.

"This," declared Kuhfuss, "is simply not true -- as a simple reading of the law will show."

Kuhfuss lumped the rest of the Secretary is urging farmers to get from the Department of Agriculture and their local representatives -- the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service offices."

Kuhfuss acknowledged that Freeman is a master in the use of propaganda. Citing the taped and filmed news releases, Kuhfuss said "The Secretary must have kept the date of the referendum a secret from the public for days in order to prepare this expensive group of news tapes and news reels and have them shipped to stations all over the nation."

JEANNE PARIS, who specializes on meat dishes, will give a demonstration before the Frankfort Women's club at its meeting next week.

MR. AND MRS. CHARLES J. BENTSON (Winke Photo)

Theodora Jean Zemeske Weds Charles Bentson

From Mr. and Mrs. Albert J. Zemeske of Parker ave., Mokena, comes the announcement of the marriage of their daughter, Theodora Jean and Charles Bentson, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Bentson of Joliet.

The double ring ceremony took place at St. Mary's church on Dec. 29, with Father Cecil Koop, OFM officiating. Following the ceremony, a reception was held for the immediate families at Valley View Restaurant. The bride is a graduate of Lincoln-Way high school and attended St. Xavier college in Chicago.

Mr. Bentson is a graduate of Joliet Catholic high school and after serving a three year enlistment in the navy, he is employed by the Argonne National Laboratories.

The young couple is now living at 121 Illinois st., Joliet.

No Snow After March 13 Weather Records Show

March moved into Orland Park like a lion, roared with cold and violent weather, then eased out like a lamb, according to Channel 7 climatological observer Rhett Brown.

The lowest temperatures recorded during the month were 10 above zero on both March 1 and 2. The highest temperature was 74 on March 30.

Winter snow cover had melted by March 4. Snow flurries were reported several days early in the month, but warm winds and rainfall melted most of the snow as it fell. No snow was noted after March 13.

Observer Brown makes daily weather observations at 135th and 80th Ave., Laguna Woods, Orland Park, as a part of the Channel 7 three-state network of cooperative observers. Using instruments supplied by the American Broadcasting Company, each observer records current, high and low temperature, rainfall, snowfall, snow cover and pertinent remarks concerning unusual weather phenomena.

Rhett, 14, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. George E. Brown. He is a student at Carl Sandburg high school.

Defeat Of Wheat Program Could Be Blow To Bureaus

Outcome of the National Wheat Referendum this spring could well mark a turning point in the direction of farm policy, T. C. Petersen, director, program development division, American Farm Bureau Federation, said at New Lenox Monday in addressing the annual meeting of the Will County Farm Bureau.

Defeat of the Freeman wheat certificate plan, Petersen said, will be a major blow to the Administration's supply-management control program for all of agriculture.

"The major issue in the forthcoming referendum," the Federation spokesman said, "is not limited to the kind of a wheat program we are to have--the basic issue is whether the farms of America are to be managed by farmers or by a government bureaucracy."

Only wheat is directly involved, Petersen pointed out, but approval of the certificate plan would be the opening wedge for controls on feed grains, livestock, dairy and poultry production.

"The Administration's wheat certificate plan is a complex, complicated conglomeration of quotas, allotments, marketing certificates, diverted acre controls, cross compliance requirements, subsidies and penalties. It could do nothing constructive for farmers," he said, "but would completely disrupt the marketing and distribution of wheat. While Secretary Freeman is trying to sell the idea the program is just a one-year trial run and producers will have another referendum in 1964, it is obvious that the experiment would create chaos in the industry and intensify the producers' problems many fold."

Petersen also said that Secretary Freeman is ignoring the fact that Congress will still be in session for several months after the referendum and will exercise its authority and responsibility to draft needed legislation.

"I'm confident that congress has the ability, brains and intelligence to draft sound wheat legislation and I'm equally certain that it will be a much better program than Freeman's current wheat control scheme," he added.

The Federation speaker also pointed out that in the forthcoming referendum, the growers of 15 acres of wheat or less who have been disenfranchised in previous referendums will have an opportunity to cast a ballot this time provided they indicate they will participate in the program.

If a producer with an allotment of less than 15 acres signs an ASCS form indicating that he will participate in the certificate plan if it is approved, he is, in effect, registering to vote in the referendum," Petersen said.

"This is just like registering to vote in a primary or general election," Petersen said. "It does not commit the producer to voting 'yes' on the wheat certificate plan. He is as free as any other producer to vote as his conscience dictates."

ENGAGED -- Marsha Sabin daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Sabin of Swartz Creek, Mich., is engaged to John Pester, of 117 Fir st., New Lenox. It was announced by her parents. The bridegroom-to-be is the son of Mrs. Minnie Pester and the late William Pester, of New Lenox. The couple is planning an August wedding. Both are students at the Olivet Nazarene college, Kankakee.

MR. AND MRS. JOHN P. DUFFY

JoAnn Lynn Heim Becomes Bride Of John P. Duffy

Miss JoAnn Lynn Heim, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Heim, 19718 Wolf Rd., Mokena and John P. Duffy were united in marriage in a candlelight ceremony at Immanuel Lutheran Church on Feb. 9. Rev. A. J. Buelman performed the double ring ceremony.

Mr. Duffy is the son of Mrs. Charles Duffy, Cannonsburg, Pa. and the late Mr. Duffy.

The bride was escorted to the altar banked with bouquets of white gladioli and 'mums and red carnations by her father.

She wore a floor length gown of white alencon lace and silk bombazine. The sabrina neckline of the long-sleeved basque bodice was enhanced with a pattern of seed pearls and iridescent sequins which also appeared on the lace appliques of her skirt. A wide border of scalloped lace extended into a chapel length train from the skirt. Her only jewelry was a white-gold cross, which was a gift of the groom.

A double tiered crown of crystals and rhinestones caught her finger tip veil of French silk illusion. She carried a cascade of white roses centered with a white orchid and accented by red chenille hearts.

Miss Darlene Scherer, cousin of the bride and maid of honor wore a scarlet street length dress of delustered satin with a slightly belled skirt. Her costume was accented by a white fur pillbox hat and she carried a matching heart shaped muff adorned with a cascade of red carnations and chenille hearts.

The bridesmaids, Susan Duffy sister of the groom and Betty Schmitz, cousin of the bride, and the flower girl, Patricia Ryder, were dressed identically to the maid of honor. Their crystal jewelry was a gift of the bride.

Mrs. Robert Schirmer, soloist sang, "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer", accompanied by Mrs. Russell Peterson, who played the traditional organ music.

Assisting the groom as best man was Charles Duffy, brother of the bride and Stephen Kopp, the ringbearer. Dennis Heim, brother of the bride; Tim Hull, cousin of the groom; Robert Agazzi, cousin of the bride and Charles Krompach served as ushers.

At the reception, which was held in the church parlors after the ceremony, Mrs. Heim greeted the guests wearing a pale blue brocade sheath with white accessories, accented by a corsage of white cymbidium orchids.

Mrs. Duffy was unable to attend the wedding due to illness.

Miss Margo Book served the wedding cake and Miss Mary Ann Shutterly took care of the guest book.

The new Mrs. Duffy chose a sapphire blue, wool suit with harmonizing accessories and a white orchid corsage, as her going away outfit.

Following a motor trip thru the Eastern states, which took them to Niagara Falls and through the Pocono Mountains of Pennsylvania, the young couple are now residing in Mokena.

"Defensive Driving"

Utility Firm Teaching Road Safety To Drivers

Joliet area streets are becoming safer every year, thanks to the efforts of Northern Illinois Gas Company to teach its employe-drivers "defensive driving."

Since late 1959 the gas company has taught employes who drive company-owned vehicles to "Drive safely--as if your life depended on it!" Stuart Payne, transportation safety advisor for NI-Gas, commented, "We want our drivers to look far enough ahead to spot hazards that could result in an accident. By 'driving defensively' they'll see children, trucks or hazards early enough to start a defensive maneuver and avoid becoming involved in an accident. We want them to be alert defensively. . . for everybody's safety!"

What have been the results of the NI-Gas program?

Since the forming of NI-Gas in early 1954, no employe has become a fatality statistic. NI-Gas has lowered its vehicle accident rate every year since the defensive driving program began. Presently it is ranked fifth among the 30 largest gas companies in America in terms of total employe driving performance.

This year the company's southern division (which includes 161 drivers in the Joliet area) was awarded the President's Trophy for the safest driving record of 1962. The division's 337 drivers totaled almost three million miles of all-weather driving last year. They incurred about nine accidents per million miles driven, far under the national average of 14 accidents per million miles driven for all drivers.

NI-Gas, with 2,300 drivers and 1,800 vehicles, is vitally interested in improving its highway safety record. Last year its company vehicles traveled over 18 MILLION miles--sufficient to send an astronaut on 36 round trips to the moon.

Show Ditches On Plans? Then Better Dig Them

(CNS) - Walter S. Baltis, chairman of the drainage and storm flow committee of the Chicago Sanitary District, announced last week that a new policy for sewers and drains is being instituted.

Baltis said that all applications in new suburban flood control districts will be followed by on-site inspections.

There have been certain violations in plans and specifications recently, Baltis said, such as ditches and channels shown on maps of new permit requests

Mrs. Anderson Is Hostess To Women Voters

The April meeting of the Palos-Orland League of Women Voters will be held on Monday evening, April 15, at 8 o'clock in the home of Mrs. Harry Anderson, 108th Avenue, Route 1, Orland Park.

Guest speaker will be Mrs. Charles Probst of the Northbrook League, who will discuss and explain the League's study of Cook County Council.

There will also be a morning meeting on Tuesday, April 16, 9:30 a.m. in the home of Mrs. Kenneth Jensen, 11729 S. 83rd Avenue, Palos Park.

Mrs. Lester Senecalle of the Beverly League will be guest speaker. The topic of discussion will be the same.

Show Ditches On Plans? Then Better Dig Them

being non-existent. Baltis said, "The crack-down is on."

The following is a list of sewer applications approved by the Metropolitan Sanitary Board last week:

Village of Medlothian - an extension of an existing village sanitary sewer to serve 6th addition to Bremenshire Estates, 152nd Lawndale Avenue, a direct connection to an existing village sanitary sewer.

City of Palos Heights - for construction of a private sanitary sewer to serve A.A. Stagg high school at 111th and Roberts Road, a direct connection to the M.S.D. Interceptor Sewer.

"The big trouble with success today is the government divides it with you."--George B. Bowra, Aztec (N. M.) Independent Review.

"A miracle drug is any medicine you can get the kids to take without screaming."--E. M. Remsburg, Vista (Calif.) Press.

ROBERTA MARIE DEAVILLE Mr. and Mrs. George R. Deaville of Mokena are announcing the engagement of their daughter, Roberta Marie, to Charles H. Baird, the son of Mr. and Mrs. William E. Baird of Monticello, Illinois.

Miss Deaville is a graduate of Lincoln-Way high school and is presently employed at the Commonwealth Edison Co. in Chicago. Her fiancé is a graduate of Eastern Illinois university.

A June wedding is being planned by the couple.

Orland Boy On Easter Program Via Channel 11

The Chicago Sunday Evening Club will present "The Redeemer" on Sunday evening, April 14, at 8:00 p.m. in Orchestra Hall, Chicago, and will be televised on Channel 11, WTTW at that time. Dr. Clarence Dickinson will direct the choir and musical portion of the program.

An instrumental quartet will be used to augment the choir in their rendition of "Glory be to the Father" by Dickinson. Ian Lilly, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Lilly, 8410 West 135th Street, Orland Park, will perform as part of the quartet. This talented young musician is the trombone section leader for the Carl Sandburg high school concert band besides participating in various musical groups that perform in Chicago. He plays Bach and Beethoven with as much dexterity as he does the progressive works of Stan Kenton. At present he is studying with Robert Huyer of Chicago.

New LenoxVFW Post Elects Staff;
Shonkwiler Is CommanderDOLORES ANDERSON
485-3651

The New Lenox Veterans of Foreign Wars post No. 9545 has elected officers for the coming year at its regular meeting last Thursday night in the fire house.

Chosen commander was Jack Shonkwiler. The other officers are: Robert Fischer, senior vice commander; William Cruise, junior vice commander; Anton Bruck, adjutant; John Vincent, quartermaster; Harold Dalley, chaplain and Joseph Wajchert, service officer.

The Woman's Auxiliary of the VFW post is to conduct a bakery sale Saturday, April 13, at Braun Sales.

Holy Communion will be served from 7 to 8:30 p.m. tonight (April 11), Maundy Thursday. People may go to the church anytime during this period and remain in the seats or at the altar as long as they wish. Meditation music will be played on the organ during this period.

On Easter morning the Methodists will have a sunrise service at 6:30 o'clock with breakfast at 7:15. An Easter Cantata, "Tragedy to Triumph", by Bernard Hamblen, will be sung by the choir at this service only.

Regular church school is at 9:30 and the worship service at 11 a.m.

Mr. and Mrs. Archie Meyers, Cedar road, moved back to their home at Peoria last week-end.

Mrs. Kay Toft returned home Saturday after a two month's stay at Albuquerque, N.M., following orthopedic surgery. She will be on crutches for two or three months yet.

The Cub Scouts Pack 8 will have their monthly pack family night Friday, April 26 at 7:30 in the Fellowship hall of the Methodist church.

The Home-Art club will meet Wednesday, April 17 at the home of Mrs. Walter Price,

New Lenox road, for dessert-coffee at 1 o'clock. Co-hostess will be Mrs. Arthur Rowsell. Mrs. Bernice Wizorek will demonstrate her huck-weaving, and Mrs. William Zeigler will display her flower decorations.

The New Lenox Sportsmen Auxiliary will meet at the home of Mrs. Wade Krohn, 202 South Cedar road for their monthly meeting at 8 p.m., April 17. A social hour will follow the meeting.

On April 27 the Boy Scouts of Troop 49 will go to Galena to take part in the Grant Pilgrimage. The Scouts are to be in uniform and will leave the Boy Scout Cabin in the camp grounds at 5:30 a.m. Scout mothers will serve them hot chocolate and doughnuts before they leave.

Money derived from the recent paper drive will pay for the chartering of the bus for this trip.

Bonnie Schroeder, underwent minor surgery last week in Silver Cross hospital. She returned to school this week after a two-week's absence.
